Killer landslide in Manipur

Alert after river flow blocked

The debris from the landslide has obstructed the flow of the Ijei river, creating a dam-like storage condition. The Noney district administration urged people to evacuate the area, warning that if there is a breach, the waters could inundate the low lying areas

PRASANTA MAZUMDAR @Guwahati

AT least eight persons were killed after a hillock crashed down on a railway construction site at Tupul in Manipur's Noney district in the wee hours on Thursday in one of the worst landslides in the region. Seven of the dead were Territorial Army (TA) personnel, who were deployed for the protection of the under-construction railway line from Jiribam to Imphal.

Solomon L Fimate, sub-divisional officer of Noney, said 18 were rescued while over 50 were missing. Several TA jawans, railway employees, labourers and villagers are also among the missing.

The toll is likely to go up as many people are still trapped under the debris. The condition of some of the injured is said to be critical.

Sabyasachi De, chief public relations officer of Northeast Frontier Railway, said an entire hillock vanished after the landslide.

Manipur Chief Minister N Biren Singh said Prime Minister Narendra Modi telephoned him and offered all help. Multiple agencies, including teams from the National Disaster Response Force, were working at the site, he added.

He also announced an ex-gratia of ₹5 lakh each for the next of kin of the deceased and ₹50,000 each for those injured.

KSPCB to seize plastic from stores

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

IN the wake of a nationwide ban on use of single-use plastic (SUP), Karnataka State Pollution Control Board (KSPCB) chairman Shanth Avverahalli Thimmaiah on Thursday said that from July 1 (Friday), all items will be seized from all retail stores and other sales units.

Imposition of fine on violators will also come into immediate effect from Friday. Enough awareness has been spread, it is now time for action, Thimmaiah said.

However, in the first phase of implementation of ban on SUP, chips and biscuit packets, water, cold drink and juice bottles, milk sachets and other such items have not been included in the list issued by the Central Pollution Control Board (CPCB). Thimmaiah said Karnataka had implemented the ban on use of plastic since 2016.

The manufacturers/suppliers should take back the plastic used for packing items and recycle them. This should be mandatorily followed. CONTINUED ON: P7

BJP curveball: Shinde CM, Fadnavis Dy

Seen as Shah's masterstroke to diminish the Thackeray brand and curtail the ambitions of the former CM

Pawar quip on Fadnavis

NCP chief Sharad Pawar said the body language of Devendra Fadnavis showed he was not happy with being asked to be the deputy CM but accepted it against his will because of the discipline RSS inculcated in him. He also said drawing as many as 38 Shiv Sena rebels is not easy but Eknath Shinde pulled it off. "I have spoken with him over the phone and congratulated him."

SUDHIR SURYAWANSHI @ Mumbai

WITH the BJP on Thursday pulling off a massive surprise by offering the chief minister's post to rebel Shiv Sena leader Eknath Shinde and persuading a reluctant Devendra Fadnavis to be his deputy, it appears to have killed multiple birds in one stone.

From his humble beginnings as an auto driver to that of the CM, the rise of the four-time MLA and twice minister has indeed been meteoric. At the oath-taking ceremony, Shinde invoked Sena founder Balasaheb Thackeray and Anand Dighe saying his government will follow in their footsteps.

Sources saw in the day's developments a masterstroke by Union home minister Amit Shah. "By making Shinde the CM, the BJP has not just engineered a vertical split in elected representatives of the Shiv Sena, it also divided the party. More importantly, it has diminished the Thackeray brand and reduced him to a caricature. And Shinde will be controlled by the top leadership of the BJP for future manoeuvres," said a source requesting anonymity.

Besides, Shah clipped the wings of Fadnavis, the source said. "Fadnavis was CM from 2014 to 2019. He was also projected as a potential prime ministerial candidate after Narendra Modi. And he has tacit support from the RSS. He was not ready to work as Shinde's No 2. But Shah persuaded Modi that the Shinde-Fadnavis team would be best in the larger interests of the BJP in Marathadominated Maharashtra. Modi then called Fadnavis and persuaded him to take the job."

Shinde was light-weight minister in the Fadnavis cabinet earlier. The roles reversed on Thursday with Shinde becoming his boss. Fadnavis was hoping to be the new CM. "But it appears that the party leadership decided to not only rub salt on his wounds but also humiliate him by asking him to be deputy CM," sources said. P9

After spree of accidents, BU campus roads get barricades

DONNA EVA @Bengaluru

BARRICADES have been put up on Bangalore University's campus roads following a report by TNIE highlighting the issue of missing speedbumps.

TNIE had reported about missing speedbumps after the roads were tarred for Prime Minister Narendra Modi's visit to the city two weeks ago. This had caused accidents almost daily in the university's Jnanabharati campus roads, students had alleged.

EXPRESS IMPACT

Following TNIE's report, however, local police have put up barricades to prevent accidents. Despite this, however, two more accidents occurred on Thursday. At least two people were injured, including a faculty member of the university, when their two-wheeler was hit by a car.

Students and faculty have been appealing to BBMP to install speedbreakers again. A letter was sent to the civic body by the university's administration earlier this week, appealing them to reinstall the speedbumps. However, apart from barricades, no other measures have been taken.

42K garbage collectors to go on strike today

CM to hold meeting today evening to discuss matter; official says action can be taken against contractors as per ESMA

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

KARNATAKA is likely to plunge into a garbage crisis as over 42,000 safai karmacharis will be going on an indefinite strike across the state from Friday. Homes, hotels and other establishments will be forced to manage solid and wet waste on their own. Garbage loaders, cleaners, drivers and underground drainage workers who have been demanding regularisation of their services will be joining the strike .

Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike limits (BBMP) is likely to be the worst-hit. The state's capital has over 15,000 such workers in corporation limits who will take part in the agitation. A protest will be held at Freedom Park in Bengaluru from Friday.

According to BBMP, 5,800 tonnes of waste is generated in corporation limits and any disruption in services will have a severe impact, forcing citizens to bear the brunt.

BBMP, Solid Waste Management Special Commissioner, Harish Kumar said: "The association has submitted a memorandum and it is now up to the government to respond."

The BBMP had earlier said that it has 1,600 permanent pourakarmikas and 16,000 come under its direct payment system. "People coming to collect waste from homes are employed by contractors and it is their responsibility to ensure that services are not disrupted," said another senior BBMP official.

Earlier, various associations dealing with conservancy workers gave a call for a state-wide agitation threatening that they would not collect garbage from Nagara Palikes, Grama Sabhas and Pattana Panchayats. But since the government did not respond to their demands, the association is going ahead with the indefinite strike, said P P Appanna, General Secretary, AICCTU.

Shivanna Mysuru, President, Karnataka State Nagara Palike, Grama Sabhas and Pattana Panchyat Pourakarmika Maha Sangha said that earlier a delegation had met Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai seeking his intervention but no avail.

Collection of garbage falls under essential category and as per ESMA, if the services are not met, action will be taken against the contractors, said a BBMP official.

Meanwhile, Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai will hold a meeting with officials to discuss the matter on Friday evening.

Migrant workers at a slum in Mahadevpura Zone who are facing eviction

Mahadevpura will stink if waste pickers evicted

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

MAHADEVPURA Zone under BBMP limits may stink and residents will find it difficult to manage waste at home as over 200 autos and hundreds of tricycles carrying municipal waste are planning to go on a strike against Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike (BBMP)'s plan to evict migrant waste pickers.

It is said that migrant workers are upset with Assistant Executive Engineer (AEE) Mamata after she allegedly threatened land owners who allow "Bangla" migrants to pick waste in BBMP limits.

"The owners reportedly have given in writing that they will evict the workers. If migrants are harassed, collecting garbage from homes in and around Mahadevpura will be stopped. We have given a memorandum to Joint Commissioner of Mahadevpura Zone. We have asked for assurance that land owners will not be harassed for renting the place to migrants. Tomorrow we will meet the Joint Commissioner (JC) personally," said R Kaleem Ullah, Vice President, All India Shramik Swaraj Kendra. He added that power supply to a slum was disconnected two days ago.

"If there is no clarity from JC tomorrow, not only will the workers refuse to collect waste, but most women who work in nearby apartments as maids will also stop coming", Kaleem Ullah said.

One of the owners was reportedly heard telling the activists that he is under pressure from political leaders and police. "Cases are being filed and children are being harassed. Yesterday they took my wife to police station. The cops accuse us of shielding illegal Bangladeshi immigrants. So I have asked the slum dwellers here to vacate."

Joint Commissioner of Mahadevpura told TNIE that his office has received a memorandum and has directed officials to look into it.

NGT gives BBMP two months more to get its act together, clean up city

BOSKY KHANNA @Bengaluru

WITH Bengaluru still struggling to manage its garbage effectively, the National Green Tribunal on Thursday gave another two months to the Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike (BBMP) to get its act together and make the city visibly clean.

This was one of the prime decisions taken at a closed-door meeting on the solid waste management (SWM) situation in the city, held between members of the NGT and BBMP, Karnataka State Pollution Control Board (KSPCB) officials and other stakeholders.

One of the participants told The New Indian Express: "Even as multiple deadlines have been given to the BBMP, things have not improved. Now with the Tribunal's physical hearing for Karnataka scheduled for October, it is high time they get their act together. A two-month deadline, September, has been set for the BBMP to ensure that the city is clean and there is proper SWM. It is unfortunate that despite SWM Rules 2016, court directions and NGT verdict, BBMP still depends upon landfills and the waste processing units are facing troubles."

The participant added that waste management is not limited to solid waste, but also waste water and e-waste.

Proper collection and disposal centres should be set up.

The BBMP has already laid out the rules for bulk waste management, generation, in-situ composition and setting up of processing units. Now it should start taking punitive and legal action against violators.

At the meeting, the BBMP was also questioned on what the SWM company was doing. It is said that the members pointed out that the company was only on paper and nothing was being done on the ground. "The company members are drawing salary, but the ground situation has not changed and BBMP still continues to manage the garbage," the participant said.

KSR, Cantt stations get digital smart lockers

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

THE Bengaluru Railway Division has launched Digital Smart Cloak Rooms (Digilockers) at KSR Bengaluru City and Bengaluru Cantonment railway stations as part of efforts being undertaken by Railways to generate non-fare revenue.

Additional Divisional Railway Manager, Kusuma Hariprasad said, "Passengers will be able to operate the lockers themselves using the KLOAK app and all operations, including payments, will be done online. During the initial phase, an operator will be stationed near the lockers to help passengers without smartphones." The charges for availing the digital locker will be Rs 100 up to 12 hours and Rs 150 for a full day. The corresponding charges is Rs 30 and Rs 50 in the regular cloak rooms, she said.

Explaining the features, she said each locker item will be insured up to Rs 5,000 by default. "Each locker can take two to three air bags. The price will be per locker instead of per bag," the ADRM said.

Daily Starscope

PETER VIDAL

01st July: I am talking about time travel this week. Have you heard about the 'Grandfather Paradox'? This states that, if time travel were possible, we would be able to travel back in time and kill our own grandfather, meaning that we would never be born. And, in that case, we would never have been able to kill him! Nobody I know has worked out a solution to this conundrum yet!

ARIES (Mar 21 - Apr. 20)
The simple and straightforward advice is not to trust anyone. That doesn't mean that a person is going to intentionally let you down, only that plans may have to be unavoidably altered at the last moment. Nobody is to blame: what happens now is the result of all past actions, including yours.

TAURUS (Apr. 21 - May 21)
You may put your foot down at work, but only if you are in an unassailable position. You must have authority on your side and, if you don't, you would probably do better to bide your time. And, at home, you'd do best to rely on your seductive charms.

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21)
The stars are packed with useful advice today: if you're travelling, leave nothing, not even the merest detail, to chance; if there's a legal dispute on the cards, make sure you know your rights. And if a partner forgets where they are or what they're doing, be patient!

CANCER (June 22 - July 23)
The most useful way to absorb today's somewhat peculiar planetary influences is to concentrate on your material and financial security. Quite simply, it's the right moment to crack open the piggy bank. But you can also call in some emotional favours.

LEO (July 24 - Aug. 23)
There's bound to be a steady accumulation of emotional tension throughout the day, as the Moon gradually moves towards its next dramatic position. You may need a steady nerve if someone seems determined to test your patience, so don't over-react - no matter how much you're provoked.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 - Sept. 23)
One area of your chart I haven't mentioned for some time is that ruling your physical well-being. It is therefore appropriate to mention that today's stars give you the chance to take long-term measures to deal with an equally long-standing complaint.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 - Oct. 23)
Artistic and creative Librans are singled out for praise by today's solar supporters and lunar allies, and you should let rip and make your mark upon the entire known world. That includes ninety-nine per cent of all Librans! How about pretending you're an assertive Aries for a change?

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)
If you have any long-term alterations in mind at home, today would be a good time to start. Those of you planning a change of residence, or any improvements of similar magnitude, should find that events move very fast. In fact, you may soon have to hang on tight.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 - Dec. 22)
A tendency towards serious misunderstandings is qualified by an equal recognition of the need to make hard-headed, long-term choices. All travel plans should be pursued free from sentiment or frills of any kind. If you want to go somewhere new, then do so because you want to, not because you're under emotional pressure.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23 - Jan. 20)
You could now be approaching a major watershed in your financial affairs. You must be prepared to sustain a small loss in the interests of long-term profit, but do realise that the important consideration is security. Safety and comfort actually mean more to you than some people often realise.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19)
There will be a fair amount of tension in the air, but the useful way to approach today's cosmic potential is by offering a chance for a completely fresh start in whatever area of activity you choose. Make your decisions, issue invitations - and follow them through.

PISCES (Feb. 20 - Mar 20)
Today's planetary pictures and patterns actually suit your Piscean qualities down to the ground and your imagination may throw up one or two adventurous thoughts. In point of fact it's the ideal moment for mystical speculation and day-dreams of all kinds.

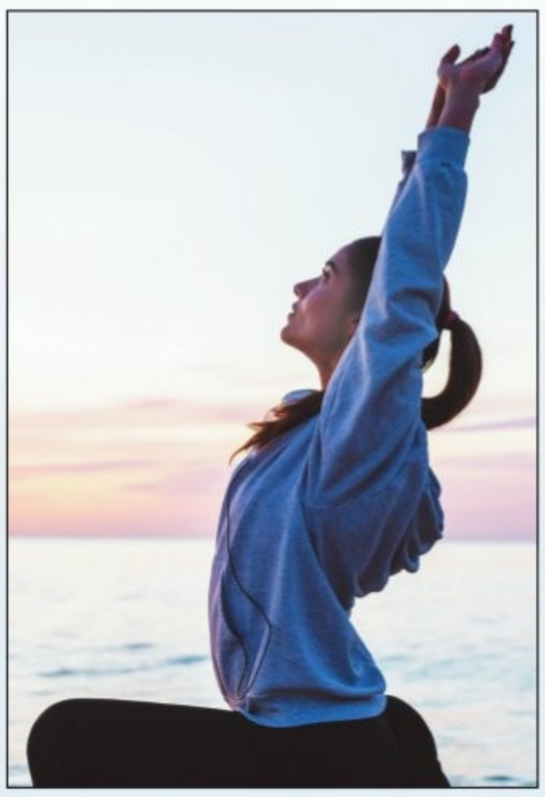
'You can keep this body well only by using it'

Sadhguru explains that the key to keeping the body healthy is to use it well, and build up our level of activity over a period of time.



There was once a young physician. He had some problems with a diagnosis of a patient, so he went to a senior colleague for advice. The senior colleague said, "Oh! Nerves and vomiting, is it? Hmm..." "Yes," replied the young man, "but I don't find any medical reason for him to have nerves and vomiting." So the senior colleague suggested, "Ask him if he is playing golf. If he does play, tell him to stop. If he says he doesn't, ask him to play. He'll become ok!" Health is like that!

You can keep this body well only by using it. The more you use it the better it gets.

Some people are over-worked and have ill-health. But most people are under-worked and have ill-health. If you had lived 200 years ago, you would be doing at least 20 times more physical activity than what you are doing right now. You would have walked everywhere and would have done everything with your hands. If you were doing that much activity, I would have told you to take a break and get some rest. But for most people today, the body has not been used enough. In terms of physical activity, many 20-year-olds would not be able to do what a 60-year-old was doing 100 years ago. That means we are just weakening humanity. You can keep this body well only by using it. The more you use it the better it gets.

Walk-Kings!

Many years ago, I took a bunch of people and went trekking in the Western Ghats. These are areas in the Hassan-Mangalore segment that I had trekked extensively, so I know the beauty and charm of these places. They are absolutely magical – full of wildlife and thick vegetation. A few weeks before that, a naval helicopter going to Bangalore had crashed in the area somewhere in the forest. The search teams did all kinds of aerial stuff but couldn't find it. Then they brought in a battalion of over 200 army personnel who began combing the forest, and they could not locate the helicopter even after a few weeks. That's how thick the vegetation is!

One of the simplest things about health is just to use the body. If you use the body sufficiently, it has everything to create health for itself.

There were about 35-40 of us walking through this area. We were having problems cooking and everything because it was pouring rain and we had walked for a whole day. Then we walked into this army camp and made ourselves uninvited guests because the food smelt good! You really know the value of food only when you have used your body like that. We walked in and the commanding officer was very generous – he welcomed us and was very happy to have us join them.

One of the sergeants of the battalion asked us why we were walking, and when we said we were doing it because we wanted to, he couldn't believe it. "Just like that?" he asked. "We are here for so many weeks just waiting when this damn thing will be over. Every day we have to walk 20-30 kilometers searching for this damn helicopter which we can't find and you are just walking for fun?!" He just wouldn't believe us, "Is it possible that somebody could just walk for fun? With all the blisters in your legs and everything!" He didn't understand that what he was doing as a forced exercise was keeping him so healthy and well.

Allow Life to Function Fully

One of the simplest things about health is just to use the body. If you use the body sufficiently, it has everything to create health for itself. I would say, if we physically used our bodies as much as we should, 80% of the ailments on this planet would just disappear. Of the remaining 20%, another 10% is because of the type of foods people are eating. If you change that, another 10% would disappear. That means only 10% of the ailments would remain. That has happened because of a variety of reasons. One is karmic, another could be atmospheric and there are other aspects that could have happened in the system, which can be looked at.

Out of all the sick people, if 90% of them become healthy just by using the body and eating the right food, 10% could be easily handled. But now, the volume of ailment is so big because we don't eat properly or we eat very properly and we don't use the body properly.

You just have to use your body, your head and your energies. If these three things are well-exercised and balanced, you will be healthy.

People are acting as if health is our idea and we created health. Health is not something that you invent. It is not your idea. When the life process is happening well, that's health. If you allow life to function fully, it is healthy.

So you just have to use your body, your head and your energies. If these three things are well-exercised and balanced, you will be healthy. This happened to me once. This was way back during the second or third Bhava Spandana program. I was conducting it in one of those little places where I had to run up and down the staircase any number of times because the arrangement was like that. I just counted on one particular day when I was conducting the program and I had to manage the kitchen too, I went up and down the staircase 125 times, and I felt very healthy at the end of the program.

A sudden burst of activity may lay you down, but if you build activity – physical, mental and energy – into your life, health will come. Your body is working well, your mind is working well and your energy is supporting the two making sure nothing goes wrong – that's health. Life is happening in full flow, that's health.

Knowing Your Health

The difficult times amid COVID-19 have once again reminded us about the contributions and sacrifices made by doctors and healthcare staff around the globe on a daily basis.

The day was first celebrated in the year 1991 to honour the former Chief Minister of Bengal, Dr BC Roy to acknowledge his contribution to serving humanity. Dr Roy was an exemplary and eminent doctor who made an enormous contribution to the medical fraternity in his medical career. He was born on July 1, 1882, and died on a similar date in 1962.

We celebrate this day to acknowledge and express our gratitude to our medical doctors who work tirelessly day and night to ensure our well-being. During the crucial pandemic situation, it has become even more necessary to thank them for working 24X7 for saving our lives.

But while doing so, it is also important to know how we can safeguard ourselves by just taking care of our body. If we know why we suffer, we can improve the way we live. Measuring how many people die each year helps to assess the effectiveness of our health systems and direct resources to where they are needed most. For example, mortality data can help focus activities and resource allocation among sectors such as transportation, food and agriculture, and the environment as well as health.

COVID-19 highlighted the importance for countries to invest in civil registration and vital statistics systems to allow daily counting of deaths, and direct prevention and treatment efforts. It has also revealed inherent fragmentation in data collection systems in most low-income countries, where policy-makers still do not know with confidence how many people die and of what causes.

People living in a low-income country are far more likely to suffer due to communicable disease than a noncommunicable disease. Despite the global decline, six of the top 10 causes of death in low-income countries are communicable diseases.

Disturbing Heart's Rhythm

Ischemia is a condition in which the blood flow (and thus oxygen) is restricted or reduced in a part of the body. Cardiac ischemia is the name for decreased blood flow and oxygen to the heart muscle.

Ischemic heart disease is the term given to heart problems caused by narrowed heart arteries. When arteries are narrowed, less blood and oxygen reaches the heart muscle. This is also called coronary artery disease and coronary heart disease. This can ultimately lead to heart attack.

Ischemia often causes chest pain or discomfort known as angina pectoris.

What is silent ischemia?

Many people may have ischemic episodes without knowing it. These people have ischemia without pain — silent ischemia. They may have a heart attack with no prior warning. People with angina also may have undiagnosed episodes of silent ischemia. In addition, people who have had previous heart attacks or those with diabetes are especially at risk for developing silent ischemia.

Myocardial ischemia

Myocardial ischemia occurs when blood flow to your heart is reduced, preventing the heart muscle from receiving enough oxygen. The reduced blood flow is usually the result of a partial or complete blockage of your heart's arteries (coronary arteries).

MONSOON DEFICIT MAY IMPACT HYDEL POWER GENERATION

State gets 141 mm of rain as against norm of 191 mm in June

ASHWINI M SRIPAD @ Bengaluru

THE deficit rainfall in the first month of south west monsoon and the resulting low storage at reservoirs could hit power production in the state.

The state generates power from hydel, thermal and alternative energy sources, but it is largely dependent on thermal and hydel power. The state did have good storage at its dams in the Cauvery and Krishna basins, as it received good pre-monsoon showers in May. But when the actual monsoon set in, the rain was sparse. Nearly half of all the 31 districts recorded a severe deficit rainfall in June, which is the first month of monsoon.

The Karnataka State Natural Disaster Management Centre (KSNDMC) stated that the state, from June 1 to 30, received only 145 mm of rainfall as against the normal of 191 mm. Of the 13 major reservoirs, Linganmakki, Supa and Varahi are hydel power generation stations and they have been affected badly. They have only 30 per cent of storage as compared to last year as inflows have gone down drastically. Experts from KSNDMC pointed out that the storage at these reservoirs is low also because the state depended largely on hydel power last year.

According to the Karnataka Power Transmission Corporation Ltd, hydel power generation from Sharavathi (Linganamakki), Varahi and Supa has been only 392 megawatt, while the capacity is 1,595 MW. "One of the reasons could be less water storage at these dams," said KPTLC sources.

Energy Minister Sunil Kumar told The New Indian Express that they are hoping for good rain in the coming days and the situation could be dire if it fails. "Going by the Met department prediction, the State is expected to receive a good rainfall. Overall, the state generates around 6,000 MW of power, of which hydel sources constitute 30 per cent. If the rain fails, then it will be an issue," he said.

Sit and thrash out Mekedatu issue: Union min to K'taka, TN

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Mysuru

UNION Minister of State for Jal Shakti Bishweswar Tudu said that Karnataka and Tamil Nadu should hold talks and arrive at an understanding on the Mekedatu reservoir issue.

The riparian states are into legal battle over sharing of Cauvery water, and they should talk in a conducive atmosphere, he said.

After inspecting three panchayats including Nagawala on the outskirts of the city along with members of the Parliamentary Consultative Committee members on programmes under the Ministry of Jal Shakti, he told media persons that the Centre is ready to extend all support for the project but the state should strike a pact on the water sharing issue.

The Ministry is encouraging water conservation activities, rainwater harvesting, renovation of water bodies and recharging of underground water tables, he said, adding that as the country celebrates 75 years of Independence, he has decided to identify at least 50 water bodies in each district and improve water conservation.

The committee members also sought details of the renovation of Kalyani in Nagavala undertaken at a cost of Rs 8 lakh, water recharging pits and other works carried out using Jal Shakti funds and MGNREGA. He said the government is committed to supply clean tap water to every household.

He also lauded the Karnataka government for expediting the implementation of Jal Shakti's works to address water scarcity by utilizing rainwater harvesting, recharging underground water tables, and rejuvenating water bodies.

The Minister also interacted with Nagawala panchayat president Narendra, members, and officials. RDPR Commissioner Shilpa Nag, DC Bagadi Goutham, ZP CEO BR Poornima, and other officials were present.

Katti wants 20 smaller states for efficiency

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Mysuru

FOOD and Civil Supplies Minister Umesh Katti, who had drawn flak over his demand for a separate state for the North Karnataka region, on Thursday demanded that the Centre should create 20 more states for good governance and better administration.

Katti said the BJP high command is mulling over creation of new states, and in his opinion, smaller states deliver effective governance and execute development and welfare programmes better.

He suggested that Uttar Pradesh, with a population of 21 crore, be divided into four states, and Maharastra, with 11 crore population, into three. Karnataka's population was 2.5 crore during reorganisation of states, and now it is 6.5 crore. It should be split into two. He said that despite Telugu being the common language for both Telangana and Andhra Pradesh, it was divided into two states.

Clarifying that he is not demanding a separate state for the North Karnataka region only to become its chief minister, he said, "Among the 224 MLAs in the Assembly, I'm the senior-most. It is my desire that if I become a chief minister, I should for the undivided Karnataka. But it should be my fate to become a chief minister."

Hitting out at Congress for criticising his remark over statehood, he said Opposition leader Siddaramaiah should also think of North Karnataka's development.

Siddaramaiah, who served as chief minister, launched padayatras announcing the development of Almatti, but it is yet to be done, he added.

On the power tussle in Maharashtra, he said let anyone come to power in the neighbouring state, Belagavi will remain with Kannadigas, but some miscreants are creating trouble.

Final call on GST compensation in Aug: CM

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

THE GST Council that met in Chandigarh this week discussed extension of GST compensation to the states, but a final decision will be taken in August, Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai said here on Thursday.

The GST Legal Committee has taken measures to sort out legal impediments, while recommendations of the Fitment Committee have been accepted, he added. Originally, when the Goods and Service Tax or GST was implemented, the states were guaranteed to be compensated for the loss of revenue. It was decided that the loss would consider a 14 per cent increase in revenues year on year, but Covid hit the economy and caused a great loss overall. Because of the shortfall in tax collection under GST, states are seeking the extension of compensation.

When introduced five years ago, GST was the biggest indirect tax reform in the country and received appreciation because it amalgamated most of the indirect taxes of the Union and states into one comprehensive single tax system. It got rid of multiplicity of taxes, but the issue of compensation has now emerged as a challenge with about a dozen states seeking compensation. While the states claim that two years lost in the pandemic have to be compensated, the GST Council discussed the issue, but has not taken any decision in this regard so far.

K'taka alone will incur losses of ₹20k cr: Siddu

ENS @ Bengaluru

THE Leader of Opposition Siddaramaiah criticised the GST council for failing to take a decision on extending compensation to the states, against the loss of revenue, for five more years during the meeting at Chandigarh.

The GST came into effect on July 1, 2017 with the compensation period for five years which got over on June.30.

"Karnataka alone will incur a loss of Rs 20,000 crore, and I urge for the extension of the compensation for another five years. The rate of growth of tax was at 14 per cent and now slipped to 6 per cent. The CM as the head of GST Group of Ministers (GoM) has not put forth the demand for the extension," he alleged while speaking to reporters in New Delhi. The decision of the GST Council chairperson and Finance Minister Nirmala Sitaraman is a threat to the autonomy of the states, he said, and asked why the corporate tax has been cut to 22 per cent.

'Cong will get 130 seats'

Siddaramaiah claimed that the Congress will come to power on its own in 2023. "We expect to win 130 seats, as per the sample survey, but are aiming for 150. CM just cannot deny the sample survey based on the opinion of the people of the state," he added.

More than 1,200 people had gathered at Dr BR Ambedkar Bhavan to celebrate the event. Environmentalists and experts said that this is the first time anyone in Karnataka has been honoured with this rank.

Lauding her, the CM said she is the green ambassador of the state, and added the world was fortunate to have Thimmakka as an influential force. She never received any formal education, to which the CM observed that one does not need a degree but must keep working and can achieve anything in life.

Bommai said that the state government would bear her travelling expenses to other parts of the state for her green endeavour.

"The State Information Department will develop a website to showcase her work and a web series would also be produced on people who have dedicated their lives for a better environment like Thimmakka," the CM added. He said that the government will also allocate 10 acres of land near her native village in Hassan. The BDA has already gifted her 50x80 site in Nadaprabhu Kempegowda Layout, and the government will also build her house.

Bommai said that the Ecological Budget segment with an allocation of Rs 100 crore would be spent to offset the environmental degradation on an annual basis.

Housing Minister V Somanna, former Deputy CM Dr G Parameshwar, and BJP leader Tejaswini Anantakumar were also present on the occasion.

Terming the incident inhuman and dastardly, Bommai said that it is not just the individuals, there are terror outfits behind the killing. "It is an act of terror and there is a larger international conspiracy behind it," he told media persons. The Rajasthan government should conduct a thorough investigation and punish the perpetrators of this heinous act, he added. "Let them provide the documents, no problem. Probe would be conducted on the Prime Minister's directive," he said.

Seetharam's son gets Andhra youth Cong role

BENGALURU: Despite former minister MR Seetharam making a move out of the Congress, party high command is trying to placate him through his son Raksha Ramaiah. The high command has given him the territorial responsibility of organising the youth Congress in Andhra Pradesh where the party's base has corroded with zero representation in any of the Houses. He is among the 84 youth leaders who were assigned the job of organising the youth Congress across the country, and in return, he has reportedly thanked Indian Youth Congress president Srinivas BV and AICC joint secretary Krishna Allavaru for giving him the opportunity. Having lost the nomination for the MLC post recently, Seetharam convened a meeting of his well-wishers and supporters and announced that he will take a decision about leaving the party in a month.

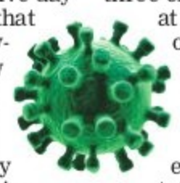
Covid-19 cluster detected at RR Nagar college

Eight tests positive, 5-day holiday for class

SHILPA P @ Bengaluru

ANOTHER Covid cluster has been detected in the city, at Anupama College in Doddabidarakallu (Ward No. 40) of Rajarajeshwari Nagar.

Eight students, pursuing their second PU commerce, tested positive during random RT-PCR tests conducted by health officials at the college. The institution has declared a five-day holiday for students of that class. However, new Covid guidelines allow schools, colleges and offices to reuse respective spaces, where Covid cases were detected, the very next day after sanitisation. All the students are asymptomatic and all are isolated at home, health officials said.



The health department staff have been going around schools, colleges, factories and other crowded places carrying out random tests. Of the 112 students tested on June 26, eight were positive and they have a history of inter-state travel. The RTPCR results of 50 other students are negative, the officers said. This is the fifth cluster reported in educational institutions in the city this month. Two clusters each were detected in New Standard English School and MES School in Rajagopalnagar ward of Dasarahalli zone. RR Nagar now has three clusters. Two others are at Mother Terasa College of Nursing and the hostel of RV College of Engineering and Architecture.

Health Commissioner D Randeep said the state reported 750 cases on Thursday and of them 700 were from Bengaluru. Of them, 84 are hospitalised, including 71 in the general ward, seven in the ICU and six in the high-dependency unit. The city has 28 clusters. Two clusters have five to 14 cases, including one each in RR Nagar and Mahadevpura zones.

HC to govt: Respect varsities' autonomy

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

OBSERVING that the autonomy of the universities are not notional extensions of the government departments nor their vassals, the Karnataka HC said the secretaries of the government departments cannot interfere in the affairs of universities in the absence of statutory power and the autonomy should be respected.

A division bench of Justices Krishna S Dixit and P Krishna Bhat made the observation while allowing the writ appeals filed by University of Agriculture Sciences (UAS) and Dr R Basavarajappa, professor of Agronomy, UAS, challenging the order passed by single judge to appoint Dr Digambarappa, professor and Head of Agronomy, UAS, as the Director (Education), UAS. The single judge on June 3, 2022 passed the order to the effect that petitioner Digambarappa should be appointed to the post of Director as he is the senior most and also as per government communication.

'Seniority cannot be the sole/soul mantra'

Noting the Director post is not a case of regular appointment, the court said the concept of ad hoc appointment is not alien to service jurisprudence. When it comes to making ad hoc appointments, ordinarily seniority takes a back seat. In matters of ad hoc appointments, seniority cannot be the sole/soul mantra, the court observed. The court said the Board of Management has prescribed the rule of rotation so that every aspirant for the Director post should get some booster. It is also a way to attract and retain talented teachers. The very idea of 'appointment by rotation' excludes the notion of seniority, the court observed.

Potholes on 847 km of city roads: BBMP

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

THE BBMP on Thursday informed the Karnataka HC that it has identified 847 km stretches of road riddled with potholes, which need repair. The road identified amounts to 61 per cent of the total 1,392 km stretches of road in the city.

IN THE HC

A report in this regard was presented before a division bench comprising Chief Justice Ritu Raj Awasthi and Justice Ashok S Kinagi by BBMP counsel V Srinidhi in the presence of Chief Commissioner Tushar Girinath and Chief Engineer M Lokesh. The report was submitted during the hearing of a PIL filed by Vijayan Menon and others in 2015.

Referring to media reports that roads repaired for PM Narendra Modi's visit to Bengaluru had been damaged, the court pulled up Girinath saying it is because of the Palike authorities that Bengaluru gets a bad name. The BBMP counsel however told the court that the PM did not use the roads that were damaged due to seepage.

He submitted that BBMP entered into an agreement with American Road Technology Solutions (ARTS) on Wednesday and work orders for filling potholes on 397 km had been issued, besides providing a Python machine for the works. The remaining work for 576 km is to be finalised for which tender was invited on Wednesday.

In order to make payment to the contractor, ARTS, more transparent, he told the court that a payment schedule will be issued as per which the contractor would be required to submit the measurement book, monthly bills, geotagged photographs by the 5th of every month and thereafter pending bill would be processed and payment would be made within one week.

The court directed the BBMP to submit a status report on July 27, 2022.

An Indigo spokesperson said, "Due to the bad weather conditions at the airport, the aircraft did not get permission to land. So it hovered over Mangaluru airport for sometime and returned to Bengaluru." A source said the flight was hovering over Mangaluru skies for close to 30 minutes. According to a spokesperson of Bangalore International Airport Ltd, Flight 6E 131 left Bengaluru around 11.15 am. "There was no problem at Bengaluru airport. It was due to weather conditions at Mangaluru," she said. Indigo was unable to specify the number of passengers on the flight. An official statement from MIA confirmed that 6E 131 had been diverted. It said a flight from Hyderabad 6E 7163 was delayed, the arrival of 6E 347 to Mangaluru was delayed by 7 minutes and it departed late by 25 minutes, 6E 496 from Kolkata to Mangaluru via Bengaluru arrived late by 16 minutes and departed at 12.50 pm, a delay of 50 minutes.

Game over? OPS not coordinator, says EPS

T MURUGANANDHAM
@ Chennai

THE tussle between AIADMK leaders O Panneerselvam and Edappadi K Palaniswami continued on Thursday with EPS saying OPS was no longer the coordinator of the party.

Breaking his silence a week after the general council (GC) meeting, AIADMK 'headquarters secretary' Palaniswami, conveyed this in a letter to Panneerselvam.

Palaniswami said he came to know about the details of Panneerselvam's letter written on Wednesday through the press and later through AIADMK headquarters in-charge.

Palaniswami explained that the amendments made to the bylaws of the party on December 1, 2021, ceased to exist on June 23 since the GC meeting did not ratify them. "As such, the letter written by you treating yourselves as the coordinator of the AIADMK is invalid."

"The AIADMK has not officially announced its candidates for the ensuing elections. You waited for the last date for filing nominations to pass to write this letter. Further, you boycotted the meeting of the office-bearers on June 27. Hence, your letter is invalid," EPS added.

"Writing this letter to me after trying to stall the GC meeting convened by both of us, by approaching the police as well as courts and doing everything possible aimed at pushing the AIADMK to adysfunctional state, in inappropriate," Palaniswami said in his letter to Panneerselvam.

Meanwhile, senior AIADMK functionary KP Munusamy said all members rejected the 23 resolutions at the June 23 meeting as the resolution on single leadership was not moved. He added that 2,582 GC members, 63 MLAs out of 66 and 70 district secretaries out of 75 are in support of the single leadership. In a democratic set up, majority opinion matters and wondered why Panneerselvam is not accepting this.

Munusamy, who was with Panneerselvam during the Dharma Yuddham in 2017, said AIADMK cadre cannot accept Panneerselvam now because he has compromised himself in opposing the DMK government and many times, he praised the ruling party.

Launching a scathing attack on Kerala Chief Minister Pinarayi Vijayan, Union Minister of State for External Affairs V Muraleedharan has said that the former had violated protocol by hosting the UAE consul-general at Cliff House, his official residence.

"The CM and other ministers maintained relationship with the consul general with ulterior motives," Muraleedharan said while participating in Express Dialogues in Kochi.

He said Pinarayi had admitted that the UAE consul-general had visited his house several times.

"The diplomatic handbook of the Ministry of External Affair (MEA) says that foreign missions should not interact directly with State Governments. As someone who has taken the oath of allegiance to Indian Constitution, the CM has the duty to tell the consul-general that he should communicate through the MEA. On what authority did Pinarayi and other ministers meet the consul-general?" he thundered.

Muraleedharan also alleged that there was a larger conspiracy behind the decision to transport the CM's gift using a foreign national with diplomatic immunity. "If the chief minister forgot to take the gifts during his trip to the UAE, a State Government official should have been entrusted with the job to transport the items. The foreign national was given the task to ensure that if there is any probe in future, it doesn't reach the CM," he added.

Earlier, comparing the governance of Modi government at the Centre to Ramarajya, Union Minister of State for External Affairs V Muraleedharan said a true ruler will give preference to national interest over personal relations

Govt has no respect for federal structure: Sinha

ENS@ Chennai

THE Opposition's Presidential candidate, Yashwant Sinha, visited Chennai on Thursday and mobilised support for his candidature with the elected representatives of the DMK-led alliance parties at the DMK headquarters, Anna Arivalayam.

During his visit, he was welcomed by Chief Minister MK Stalin, DMK's Lok Sabha deputy floor leader Kanimozhi and other leaders. During the occasion, Stalin wished Sinha success in the presidential election. T Ramachandran of CPI, MDMK general secretary Vaiko, and IUML MP K Navaskani were also present.

While addressing the leaders, Sinha said, " Another state government in Maharashtra has collapsed and the BJP is going to support the rebel faction of the Shiv Sena. The BJP leader hasn't become the CM, because he knows this government is going to lose. This shows that the ruling party at the Centre and the government of India have no respect for the federal structure of our constitution."

Speaking about the recent controversies over the Governors of various states, he said, "Governors are supposed to be the agent of the President in their respective states and function according to the Constitution of India. Now we are seeing how Governors are misbehaving with the elected governments at the state level."

He said any government which believes in the Constitution doesn't believe in Hindutva. But believing in secularism is not safe in the country.

Plastic associations seek govt support

ASKED whether plastic collection by BBMP will come to a halt, Thimmaiah said the issue will be discussed with the Palike and steps taken accordingly.

He added that scion of the Mysuru royal family, Yaduveer Krishnadatta Chamaraja Wadiyar, who was roped in as the brand ambassador of the board, will help in spreading the message of SUP ban and create awareness. The deputy commissioners and gram panchayats will also play their part in curbing the menace.

The chairman said 112 units have been given notices since 2016, 104 manufacturing units have been shut down and criminal cases have been filed against 12 units — nine of which are in Ballari and three in Mysuru.

Thimmaiah said that most of the biscuit and chips manufacturing units and packaging units are not in Karnataka, so acting against them is not possible.

However, many units have given representation to the Board seeking time as products have already been rolled out.

In the meantime, members of plastic associations have sought government intervention in the form of financial support as their livelihood will be affected.

Jigish Doshi, President, Plastindia Foundation said business units manufacturing single/standalone product which fall under the banned category will face serious financial issues. Hence, these manufacturers need to be protected by the government in terms of change in policy guidelines and fiscal incentives. One of the steps can be to give more time to the manufacturing units to enable them to comply with the order, he said.

He said the boy was suffering from low self esteem as he comes from a poor family and lags in studies. The police will again record his statement before the Child Welfare Committee and doctors. Following this, the police called his parents and community leaders to discuss the issue. The issue had triggered tension in Surathkal and surrounding areas.

Zubair was arrested on June 27 on charges of allegedly hurting religious sentiments following a complaint by a social media user who referred to the former's tweet from 2018. The police had registered an FIR against Zubair in connection with the complaint under Sections 153-A (promoting enmity between different groups) and 295-A (malicious acts, intended to outrage religious feelings) of the Indian Penal Code. RUSSIAN CRUDE IMPORTS STIRRING UP THE POT

India's crude oil purchases from Russia are skyrocketing much to the glee of Vladimir Putin, but this has set off distress calls from the West. Indian refiners bought as much as 25 million barrels of Russian crude in May; 8,00,000 barrels a day. This means imports from Russia have jumped 50 times since April. They now make up 10%, up from just 0.2% we imported from Russia before the Ukraine war began. Fitch predicts imports could soon increase to one million barrels a day, or 20% of India's total imports. At a 30% discount, Russian Urals, that can be refined in India, has come as a windfall when international oil prices are on the rise.

There has been a steady murmur of protest from the West. The slew of sanctions, including a ban on import of Russian oil, is being undermined by India's imports. This is bank-rolling the Russians and is indirectly helping the invaders prosecute an immoral war, they argue. The Indian government, however, has rightly defended its oil purchases to be in its national interests. India is a poor country, and it is seriously bleeding with 85% of its oil needs being imported at the current high prices. In the absence of any support from the West, India has the right to buy crude oil at the cheapest price possible.

There is another red flag. Some are worried that India is being used as a potential back door into Europe for Russian oil supplies. An oil watchdog has said 20% of Reliance's Jamnagar refinery cargo left for the Suez Canal, indicating the destination was either the US or Europe. The source of the oil cargo is often disguised by blending the oil, or switching oil from Russian flagged ships. The scale of this subterfuge is not known, but it is important that the government give the problem a serious look. India buying Russian crude for its own needs is one thing but becoming a conduit to Europe to beat the sanctions is another. International relations are at a very sensitive point today, and it is best if India plays its cards right.

SPIRITED EFFORT FOR COMMUNAL HARMONY

Any small step towards fostering communal harmony needs to be appreciated at a time when there are orchestrated attempts to keep the emotional cauldron boiling. Gatherings of cross-sections of society convened in all the 14 districts of Kerala by Panakkad Syed Sadiq Ali Shihab Thangal, state president of the Indian Union Muslim League (IUML) and the spiritual leader of the Muslim community in the state, should count as one such effort. Thangal, along with other leaders of the party, sat patiently for hours listening to suggestions from Hindu and Christian leaders, writers, activists, and representatives of various organisations during the gatherings that began on June 2 and concluded in Kozhikode on June 23.

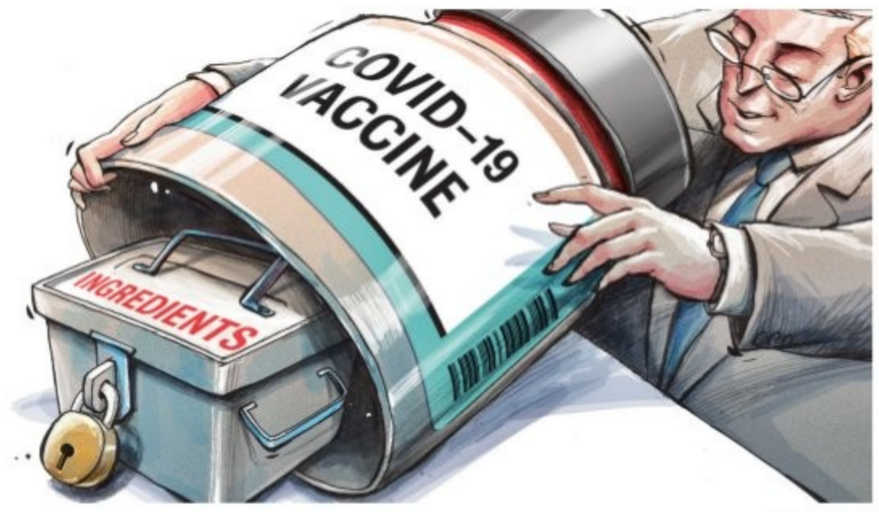
While irresponsible remarks from some political leaders and provocative slogans raised by extremist elements have transformed Kerala into a powder keg waiting for a spark to explode, Thangal's active intervention at this stage is a welcome step and could prove vital in dealing with the emotionally-charged atmosphere. For, the members of the Panakkad family, which traces its ancestry to Prophet Muhammad, are known for their wisdom and piety and not for rabble-rousing speeches that appeal to the emotions of the audience. Sadiq Ali Thangal's calm, yet assertive voice seems to have had its impact amid the cacophony of the hawks. He asked the state and central governments to set up 'ministries for tolerance and happiness' on the lines of those that exist in some Gulf countries. He directed his party workers to spread the message that hatred cannot be countered by hatred and convene similar meetings with the active participation of the people from all sections. The best lack all convictions, while the worst are full of passionate intensity—the words of English poet W B Yeats best describe the times we live in.

So, the task ahead is enormous. Thangal's biggest challenge will be to rein in the misguided elements within the community. He will then have to work hard to win the trust of other communities. That is easier said than done, especially because political parties and organisations see communal discord as an opportunity to further their cause. The mission to sideline the hate-mongers and keep the secular fabric intact will succeed only if there is wholehearted support from all sections.

There was no global cooperation when the world was grappling with the pandemic. But drug companies and developed countries will continue to promote patents

TRIPS VACCINE WAIVER LATE, LITTLE & POINTLESS

KANDASWAMI SUBRAMANIAN
Served in the Ministry of Finance, GOI, and retired as Joint Secretary



SOUMYADIP SINHA

Much has been written about the negotiations and agreements at the recently concluded Ministerial meetings (MC12) of the World Trade Organization (WTO) in Geneva. Truly, however, the expectation was rather low. Gone were the days of Doha Development Round when the global economy was booming and the developing countries hoped to get a fair share of the growing global trade. Twin Towers were hit by Al Qaeda and Washington was desperately in need of global cooperation to wage the war against terrorism. The Doha Development was born. The developed countries even agreed to amend the TRIPS to facilitate compulsory licensing (CL) to combat the raging epidemic of AIDs/HIV in some African countries. The WTO had become a symbol of hope. Sadly, the honeymoon was short-lived.

Development theorists generally take a holistic view of trade and technology interacting and promoting higher levels of economic development. The linking of trade with TRIPS (Trade-Related Intellectual Property System) was a strategic ploy played on hapless developing countries by the advanced countries. The attempt of the developed countries has been to enforce TRIPS as a condition precedent to market access. Within a few years, Doha was moribund. The larger question haunting trade theorists is the sustainability of the TRIPS especially when millions of people across countries are afflicted with Covid-19 and die.

Unfortunately, during the interregnum, the WTO itself was on life support and had become dysfunctional. The US administration under President Donald Trump attacked it for working against American interests. It was the Joe Biden administration that gave new life to the WTO and also facilitated the appointment of Ngozi Okonjo-Iweala, a Nigerian, as its Director-General. She formerly headed the GAVI, the Vaccine Alliance. She had thus to prove her commitment to combating the pandemic menace. More importantly, she had to energise the WTO or give it new life. Sadly, for the new DG, the circumstances were not propitious. Faith in globalisation had faded and was under attack under Trump and other rightist leaders. Along with it, there was the rising tide of protectionism across the countries. On the Covid-19 front, patent or IP nationalism overwhelmed most leaders and policymakers who were keen on safeguarding the lives of their own people even at the cost of other lives. Restrictions were imposed on the export of testing equipment and ingredients required for the manufacture of life-saving drugs. At a time when the world was facing the gravest ever threat of the pandemic, there was no global cooperation. As Prof. Joseph Stiglitz said in a speech at the UN General Assembly, any hope of global cooperation and recovery remained a "fantasy."

It was in this state of disarray in the WTO and global gloom that the Indian delegation commenced its effort to transform TRIPS into a mechanism to combat the pandemic by a waiver. What India and South Africa wanted was ambitious. It was a waiver of TRIPS obligations to address shortages of products required for the prevention, control and treatment of Covid-19. While tabling this, they seem to have ignored the legacy of TRIPS and the power of the drug companies who had the full support of the richer countries in the EU. Though CL flexibility was allowed, the conditions imposed negated their availability.India and South Africa tabled the proposed formally on October 2, 2020, to waive TRIPS obligations relying on Article IX of the WTO Agreement. The EU, the UK and Switzerland blocked the text-based negotiations. However, by November 2021, a decision became imperative for the successful meeting of the 12th Ministerial Conference. By March, the QUAD grouping came up with a compromise formula and on May 3, 2022, the DG tabled the text for negotiations.

> The tragedy of WTO/MC12 is that developing countries don't even get the benefit of Compulsory Licensing granted in Doha. Covid-19 is still a puzzle to virologists and pathologists. The vaccine itself is a complex product and contains ingredients that are themselves protected by separate patents

It was a shocker. The difference between the original version and the QUAD's was between cheese and chalk. Every paper drew attention to the vacuity of the watered-down offer. The only concession offered was for the vaccine, not for the ingredients which go into it,or for testing and therapeutics. The Indian delegation seems to have succumbed to the power-play of the EU and drug majors who were ready to seize the global market not only during the pandemic but also in later years when it would afflict humanity as an endemic. In the WTO, GREEN ROOM exchanges are always shrouded in secrecy. Even the appeals of Prof. Stiglitz to our Prime Minister and South African President were of no avail. It is intriguing why India caved in. Apparently, there was no trade-off on other issues such as food security and fisheries.

The tragedy of WTO/MC12 is that developing countries don't even get the benefit of Compulsory Licensing granted in Doha. Covid-19 is still a puzzle to virologists and pathologists. The vaccine itself is a complex product and contains ingredients that are themselves protected by separate patents. Moreover, over the last two years, there is a global surplus in vaccine production so much so that the limited concession offered by the WEO/MC12 will be of no value to developing countries. Commerce Minister Piyush Goyal may claim to have set and won the battle in the WTO. Developed countries and drug majors will, however, carry their flag by saying, "patents are forever".

INDIA'S ROLE IN DIGITAL DEMOCRACY: UPI IN FRANCE

HINDOL SENGUPTA
Chief Economic Research Officer at Invest India, national investment promotion agency of GoI

It is rare for columnists to see their predictions come true quickly. Therefore, it was, for me, thrilling to see the announcement that UPI or the United Payments Interface of India (along with the RuPay card) will soon be accepted in France. It came only days after my last column in this newspaper which was about India's leadership in 'digital democracy' or practices and norms in democracies using digital technologies and techniques.

"There is little doubt that India's UPI provides a public tech architecture, upon which all private platforms and apps providing digital financial transactions and other related activities are placed, is a democratising force. Rupay is a global card payment network, allied in a sense with UPI, which is now accepted in countries like Bhutan, Nepal, Singapore—and soon also in France."

The European nation would be the first major developed economy to embrace the UPI-Rupay system. This will come about via an understanding between the National Payments Corporation of India (NPCI) and French payments services provider Lyra.

This is a breakthrough for the Indian digital payment and fintech industry. It in essence validates the Indian perspective on not only the importance of building public infrastructure but also the need for alternative systems that can work around the world. The SWIFT system (based in Belgium) is the predominant global digital transaction platform but the war in Ukraine has underlined its political economy challenges and limitations.

The need is for other systems that can work concurrently with SWIFT, systems that have been built, and operate, under democratic governance. This essay argues that this is just the beginning of the creation of such alternatives as countries look for backups and tighten supply chains. And India is best placed to provide such goods and technologies.

The use and acceptability of UPI in France is one of the first examples of the mass adoption of technological solutions from India in the West which has mostly been seen as the provider rather than the recipient of technological advancement.

But increasingly, the kind of technological and digital architecture the world needs cannot be provided by private companies alone—which was and is, in a sense, the American model. They must be built through public-private partnerships and governed through public mechanisms so that they are not used merely for private profit. Such infrastructure must be the backbone upon which all private enterprise can function.

> This deal in France ... underlines India's growing stature as a provider of global tech goods, and as a leader in the process of digital democracy. This deal showcases that India's 'public tech' is relevant not just for developing countries ... but it can be equally useful for major economies

This kind of infrastructure also needs public maintenance and control, in a sense, so that no one company, or companies, can affect or impact its neutral functioning. This is not infrastructure built for the profit motive but to ensure a level-playing field in the entire market.

Now, building such infrastructure that can be used across countries needs built-in complexity and scale. India and China are the only two countries that have these attributes and concerns on privacy and authoritarianism makes such tech from China not easily acceptable in many parts of the world.

The option that can best deliver this, then, is India. It has both the scale and the complexity. And it is demonstrating that it can build technology that can be adopted and used across borders without the concern of private interests hijacking the process and profits.

This is a new kind of bridge that is being built between countries—a kind of deeper digital cooperation which is more fundamental than efforts at digital diplomacy using communication tools like Twitter.

This deal in France, therefore, in my mind, underlines India's growing stature as a provider of global tech goods, and as a leader in the process of digital democracy. This deal showcases that India's 'public tech' is relevant not just for developing countries or countries of relatively small size, but it can be equally useful for, and in, major economies.

To be sure, this is still a nascent process. But I would like to argue that the importance of this will grow exponentially. For instance, as more and more countries see the benefits of digital financial transactions, they shall seek such solutions and India will be there to provide this while ensuring security under democratic supervision. India's leadership in this is likely to grow.

Apropos Fight together to stem erosion of democracy (June 30). A democracy truly thrives when its press is free and fearless. As an 86-year-old, I have seen the deterioration in quality of not just politicians, but individuals in the bureaucracy and defence as well. Although they are all under oath to adhere to constitutional values, they have mixed this up with their own interpretations and political leanings. I recall how General K S Thimayya resigned on a matter of principle and Nehru respected it, or how General Manekshaw firmly held onto his views in the days that trailed into the '71 war. Both Nehru and Indira Gandhi were not weak PMs by any standard. But fast forward to today, and we talk about Make in India, but ignore all the current red flags. How can we go back to those earlier standards?

Ominous phenomenon

This editorial is truly a call worth heeding, brooking no delay. The BJP is adhering to the maxim, "nothing succeeds like success". Winning at all costs is an ominous phenomenon. We have a weak Opposition, consisting mainly of dynastic parties. The solution lies in making the people become agents of change. After all, people will only get leaders and rulers they deserve.

Fear of speech

This is with reference to Fight together to stem erosion of democracy (June 30). This editorial highlights the reality. Sometimes, even the judiciary denies bail in trivial cases where an arrest was not warranted. It is worth noting how Mr. Zubair was arrested recently while India was talking about the ethics of democracy at G7. In light of such events, no one dares to say anything against the current government because they fear being thrown into jail.

Focus on education

This is with reference to Pakistan angle emerges in Udaipur horror (June 30). Radicalisation of the Muslim community in the country is a serious issue. Kerala Governor Arif Mohammed Khan has said that children in madrasas are taught that those who indulge in blasphemy must be punished by getting beheaded. They are essentially taught less academics and more about religious issues. They are after all gullible and highly impressionable children who are being injected with poisonous thoughts. There is a need for a fundamental change in madrasa education in the country.

Tackle Kerala debt

This is with reference to Pension firm borrowed ₹32,000 cr in 4 years (June 29). It is beyond doubt that the financial status of Kerala Government is in dire straits, and unless corrective measures are taken, things could spiral out of control. Pay revision for state government employees and pensioners and diverting revenue to social welfare freebies as part of election gimmicks has broken the backbone of the state economy. Immediate measures need to be taken to counter the mounting public debt and fiscal deficit.

An impartial Prez

This is with reference to Yashwant Sinha: Prez should be an impartial custodian of Constitution (June 30) The statement is 100% correct. Sinha also previously said that the elected President should not be a rubber stamp of the Centre. Although the incoming President may have a party background (Sinha himself was a veteran BJP leader), she or he must be impartial and above party politics due to the important position they occupy. And I believe the same is applicable even when it comes to states where Governors represent the President.

Uddhav steps down

Apropos Thackeray steps down as apex court OKs floor test (June 30). Uddhav Thackeray is the one who should be blamed for Shiv Sena's current state. After forming the Maha Vikas Aghadi with parties that did not share the Sena ideology, he brought his son Aaditya into the political fray which may have not been a good move. BJP also involved itself and Uddhav finally stepped down.

BJP KILLS TWO BIRDS WITH ONE STONE

By letting Shinde take over the CM post and making Fadnavis assume deputy CM chair, the national leadership of BJP is attempting to lure numerically strong Marathas to its fold

SUDHIR SURYAWANSHI @Mumbai

Eknath Shinde and Devendra Fadnavis address a press conference in Mumbai ahead of their swearing-in | PTI

POLITICAL observers in Maharashtra got it all wrong when the BJP surprised everyone by letting Eknath Shinde assume the post of chief minister and forcing its CM aspirant Devendra Fadnavis to satisfy himself with the deputy CM chair.

By orchestrating a massive coup in the Shiv Sena and bringing down the tri-party MVA government, the national leadership of BJP has killed two birds with one stone. On one side, Sena supremo Uddhav Thackeray has been shown the door while on the other side, the saffron party has clipped the wing of its own ambitious Brahmin leader Fadnavis.

Senior journalist and writer Sachin Parab said the BJP national leadership has been effecting changes in its Maharashtra unit. "By supporting Maratha community man Shinde as the CM, BJP is trying to lure the Marathas who had distanced from it after the rise of Brahmin leader Fadnavis. Earlier, the BJP had appointed Vinod Tawade, a Maratha leader, as its national general secretary. The party's support to Shinde shows that it has been searching for a Maratha leader for the state," he said.

Parab, however, felt the choice of Shinde may not yield desired results for the BJP. The decision has also cast a big shadow on the leadership of Fadnavis. "The rise of Fadnavis clipped the wing of OBC leadership in Maharashtra BJP. Most of them have left the party. The BJP wants to come to power on its own in the state, so it has no option but support a Maratha leadership," he said.

Jaydeo Dole, a political and social scientist, felt that the BJP not only played a master stroke but also did a tricky job by making a "puppet" CM. "Shinde can function based only on the directions of the BJP. He will be a puppet chief minister. The chances of this government lasting long are less," Dole said.

He, however, felt the BJP's aim to keep Thackerays away from the Sena would not succeed. "It is to be seen how many Marathas will accept the leadership of Shinde even though he himself is a Maratha. He has no influence outside his Thane constituency," Dole said.

Meanwhile, the rebellion has raised question marks about Uddhav's hold over the party and the road ahead for the Sena faction that remains with him.

Fighting a legal battle to retain his hold over the party and preserving the political legacy of Bal Thackeray, revitalising the party, instilling confidence in the rank and file that is in a state of shock over the scale of the rebellion, gearing up the frontal organisations are some of the challenges before Thackeray, political observers in the state said.

SENA REBELS WILL REGRET: RAUT

Shiv Sena leader Sanjay Raut, who was accused by the Eknath Shinde group of abusing them and ending any possibility of a patch-up with Uddhav Thackeray, once again targeted them and accused them of backstabbing the ousted CM. He tweeted an image of a man presumably dressed like Uddhav, with blood oozing from a wound on his back

RAJ TAKES A DIG AT UDDHAV

Raj Thackeray took a dig at estranged cousin Uddhav a day after the latter stepped down as Maharashtra CM. "When anyone misunderstands good fortune as one's accomplishment; therein begins the journey towards one's decline," the MNS president tweeted. Raj had fought a bitter battle with Uddhav for the legacy of Balasaheb Thackeray

Long and eventful journey to the Maharashtra throne

EKNATH Sambhaji Shinde, the 20th CM of Maharashtra, once drove auto-rickshaw to earn a living before rising as a formidable Shiv Sena leader. Born on February 9, 1964, Shinde dropped out of college before completing graduation. After moving to Thane, he soon found his calling as one among thousands of Sena cadres who were ever-ready to hit the streets at the command of Bal Thackeray. As Shinde joined the Sena in Thane, he found a mentor in local party stalwart Anand Dighe. He became Dighe's deputy and strengthened the party in Thane-Palghar region after Dighe's sudden death in 2001. He faces dozens of criminal cases for charges such as 'voluntarily causing hurt by dangerous weapons' and rioting, registered during various party agitations. He became a corporator in 1997 and won his maiden Assembly election in 2004. Currently he is in his fourth term as an MLA, while his son Dr Shrikant Shinde is the Kalyan MP. ENS

Reluctant deputy stuns political pundits in state

MANY were stunned by the political manoeuvre when Devendra Fadnavis announced that Shinde will be the new CM. The expectation was that 51-year-old Fadnavis would occupy the CM's chair for the third time. It took a series of directions from top BJP leaders for Fadnavis to change his mind and join the new government, as the deputy CM. There is no clarity on what led the BJP top brass to ask Fadnavis to join the new ministry minutes after he announced that he will help it from outside. He recently led the BJP to major wins in the Rajya Sabha and Legislative Council elections in Maharashtra. Hailing from a middle-class family in Nagpur, Fadnavis has a degree in law, a post graduate degree in business management and also a diploma in project management. His political career began in 1992 when he was elected corporator in the Nagpur Municipal Corporation. ENS

Amarinder to join BJP next month by merging his party

SHAHID FARIDI @New Delhi

Accommodating Captain's wife in BJP challenging

Main challenge before the BJP is how to accommodate Amarinder's wife, Preneet Kaur, who is a former Union minister and Congress sitting MP from Patiala. She wants the BJP to promise the Patiala Lok Sabha ticket to her daughter Jai Inder Kaur

FORMER Punjab chief minister Captain Amarinder Singh is all set to formally join the BJP on his return from London where he is convalescing after a lower-back surgery last week. He is likely to be back in India late next week when the process of his induction would begin.

Amarinder Singh had formed a new political party — Punjab Lok Congress — after he quit the Congress following his removal from the post of chief minister of Punjab late last year. Sources said that the Congress stalwart from Punjab would merge his new party into the BJP.

After Amarinder's exit last year, several senior Congress leaders close to him have quit the party and joined the BJP. Among them are former Punjab Congress president and state minister Sunil Jakhar, and four top ministers from Captain's Cabinet — Raj Kumar Verka, an SC leader from Majha; Sundar Sham Arora, former working president of PPCC; and Balbir Singh Sidhu and Gurpreet Singh Kangar, prominent Jat-Sikh leaders.

Sources said the main challenge before the BJP is how to accommodate Amarinder's wife, Preneet Kaur, who is a former Union minister and Congress sitting MP from Patiala. Preneet has reportedly decided to hang her boots and hand over the mantle to her daughter Jai Inder Kaur. She wants the BJP to promise the Patiala Lok Sabha ticket to Jai Inder Kaur.

The BJP leadership is reportedly not happy with the fact that Preneet has not left the Congress even as her husband and most of his friends have deserted the party.

Sources said that the BJP is also not keen on accommodating Jai Inder because of the involvement of her husband's company Simbhaoli Sugars Ltd in alleged misappropriation of funds and the resultant cases with the CBI and the ED. Jai Inder is married to Gurpal Singh of the Sansi royal family who owns and runs the Simbhaoli Sugars Ltd in Uttar Pradesh, the ITC Welcomhotel in Amritsar, besides other businesses.

Jai Inder recently became the president of the All India Jat Mahasabha replacing Navjot Kaur Sidhu, wife of former Punjab Congress president Navjot Singh Sidhu.

The details of the merger of Captain's party with the BJP would be worked out on his return. The decision of Preneet's entry would be taken by the BJP in consultation with him.

Cong netas to receive advice on party line

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @New Delhi

EMBARRASSED by the recent incidents of party leaders taking contradictory stands from the party's official line, the Congress has decided that from now on, it will inform the party's view to all senior leaders on important issues and expect a strict adherence to it.

The decision comes after two recent incidents involving Lok Sabha MP Manish Tewari and party leader Acharya Pramod Krishanan towing a different line from that of the party. The grand old party has decided that a communication advisory will be issued to senior leaders to inform the party line on critical issues. Tewari and Jairam Ramesh were engaged in a Twitter spat over the Centre's Agnipath scheme. Similarly, Krishnan, a supporter Sachin Pilot, had criticised the party-led Rajasthan government over the brutal killing of a tailor in Udaipur.

Omicron sub-variants driving Covid surge in 110 countries

A healthcare worker collects a swab sample for a Covid-19 test in Navi Mumbai | PTI

COVID-19 cases are rising once again across the world, driven by two Omicron sub-variants BA.4 and BA.5, said the World Health Organization (WHO), adding that the number of new coronavirus cases rose by 18 per cent in the last week, with more than 4.1 million cases being reported globally.

Experts in India have said the two sub-variants, described as concern variants, are driving the surge in as many as 14 states. According to Dr Samiran Panda, Additional Director General, Indian Council of Medical Research (ICMR), and head of its Epidemiology and Communicable Diseases, India has also detected the two Omicron sub-variants. Still, the surge is not that level.

"We are seeing small local spikes, and it is not a fourth wave. The good thing is that the number of deaths or severity (of cases) is not happening to a great extent in India as seen elsewhere in the world. Also, so far, we do not see any burden on the healthcare system," he said.

India recorded 18,819 new coronavirus cases in the last 24 hours, taking the total number of Covid-19 cases to 4,34,52,164. Thirty-nine deaths were reported, as per union health ministry data.

WHO Director-General Tedros Adhanom Ghebreyesus said: "Covid-19 cases, driven by BA.4 and BA.5 in many places, are on the rise in 110 countries, causing overall global cases to increase by 20 per cent. Deaths have risen in three of the six WHO regions even as the global figure remains relatively stable."

Highlighting that Covid-19 is changing but not yet over, Ghebreyesus expressed concern over the slow pace of vaccination in lower-income countries, making the at-risk population in those areas more vulnerable to future waves of the virus. In all countries, 100 per cent of at-risk groups should be vaccinated and boosted as soon as possible.

"Even relatively 'mild' cases are disruptive and damaging, keeping children out of school and adults from work, which causes further economic and supply chain disruption. Do I think countries should continue vaccinating 70 per cent of the population, starting with the most vulnerable? Yes, I do," he said.

WARMING LEAVES WATER BODIES HIGH AND DRY

BIG LOSS
1.09 mn lakes
TO BE AFFECTED DUE TO INCREASE IN EVAPORATION
19% increase in lake surface area
58% increase in evaporation rate
23% decrease in lake ice coverage
BETWEEN 1985 & 2018
15.4%: Annual evaporation of global lakes higher than the previous model-based estimate
5.4%: Per-decade rate of increase of evaporative water loss from reservoirs between 1985 & 2018

GLOBAL warming and rising surface temperatures have resulted in evaporation of water that could have catered to 27 million people annually, found a new study published in the journal Nature.

The study, based on satellite imagery of quantified evaporative water loss for 1.42 million lakes and reservoirs globally for the past 30 years, warns that a warming climate can impose a hefty strain on water resources as demand for agriculture, industrial and domestic water continues to increase in future.

For most of the nine thermal regions in the world, the lake evaporation volume has increased during the past 34 years due to both an increased evaporation rate and an increasing lake area. Evaporation rate can be altered by warming temperatures and by elevated solar radiation.

Compared to natural lakes, the evaporative water losses and their associated trends from reservoirs are more pronounced. This quantity of reservoir evaporative loss is equivalent to 20% of the global annual consumptive water use, it said. From 1985 to 2018, evaporative water loss from reservoirs has been increasing at a rate of 5.4% per decade, which largely outpaces the global trend for all 1.42 million lakes (2.1% per decade).

The study attributed climate change as one of the factors to the long-term trend of lake evaporation volume.

"An increase of global air temperature can elevate evaporation of lakes and reduce ice. There are 1.09 million lakes (77%) that belong to this category. The climatic effect is especially notable in the high-latitude (Canada and northern Eurasia) and high-altitude (Tibetan plateau) regions. Given the amplification effect of climate change in these regions, we expect an accelerated increase of evaporation in the future," it noted.

The authors said the findings have significant environmental, societal, and economic implications, as the global evaporative loss will be accelerated in the future.

"Given the large increase of temperature in the high-latitude and high-altitude regions, the loss of lake ice can result in greater heat uptake and larger open surface areas to evaporate," it added.

WITH the beta version of Centre's ambitious e-learning platform — iGOT Karmayogi — becoming operational, the ministry of road transport and highways (MoRTH) has urged its officials to register themselves for the service.

A circular issued by the ministry recently stated that the platform would provide training resources and opportunities to its employees.

"An e-learning platform, namely iGOT Karmayogi, is being designed for providing necessary digital infrastructure to upload courses and conduct online training. This will allow the ministry to provide training resources and opportunities to its employees at a hitherto impossible scale. The experimental beta services of iGOT Karmayogi have become functional on which various learning courses are being uploaded."

Mission Karmayogi is touted as the biggest bureaucratic reform initiative, and is aimed at building capacity to make government employees more creative, proactive, professional and technology-enabled, ending the culture of working in silos and ensuring transparency.

It was approved by the Union Cabinet and launched in September 2020.

Electoral roll-revision in J&K sets off polls talk

ECs order comes after completion of delimitation exercise in J&K

FAYAZ WANI @Srinagar

IN an indication that Assembly polls may be held in Jammu and Kashmir by this year-end, the Election Commission of India (ECI) has ordered a special summary revision of electoral rolls in the Union Territory after a gap of three years.

In a letter to J&K's chief electoral officer, the ECI has directed that the entire exercise of special summary revision of photo electoral rolls should be completed by Oct. 31, with final publication of electoral rolls.

"As the revision of electoral roll was not conducted for the last three years in J&K, the newly eligible electors could not get themselves registered in the electoral roll. In view of the same, in order to update electoral rolls on the basis of newly delimitated constituencies, so that all newly eligible young electors can have the opportunity to get themselves enrolled, the exercise of Special Summary Revision with reference to the next qualifying date is required to be undertaken without further delay," reads the letter.

The ECI's order comes after the completion of delimitation exercise in J&K by the Delimitation Commission, which was formed in March 2020 for redrawing the Assembly and parliamentary constituencies after the abrogation of Article 370 and bifurcation of J&K state into two Union Territories by the Centre on Aug. 5, 2109.

Of the 90 Assembly seats in J&K, Kashmir and Jammu will have 47 and 43 seats, respectively. The Assembly seats in J&K had increased from 83 to 90 after the revocation of Article 370.

Political parties hope that the first-ever Assembly elections in J&K UT will be held possibly by October-November.

Jammu and Kashmir has been under central rule since June 2018 after the collapse of the PDP-BJP coalition government headed by Mehbooba Mufti following withdrawal of support by the saffron party citing security concerns.

KANPUR CONNECTION TO KILLING

A connection to the crime has also emerged in Kanpur, Uttar Pradesh. One of the accused, Mohammad Ghaus, is said to have had links with a Pakistan-based Islamic outift, Dawat-e-Islami. As per sources, the outfit has three centres across India, with the one in Kanpur having with over 50,000 followers. The other two are said to be in New Delhi and Mumbai.

Rajasthan CM Ashok Gehlot meets family members of Kanhaiya Lal at his residence in Udaipur on Thursday | PTI

Udaipur: CM promises fair probe as state remains tense

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Jaipur/ New Delhi/ Lucknow

AMID curfew and tension in Udaipur, Rajasthan CM Ashok Gehlot on Thursday visited the house of Kanhaiya Lal who fell to a barbaric attack by two Islamic radicals on Tuesday. Gehlot expressed his condolences to the family and relatives of the deceased. The CM offered a cash compensation of ₹51 lakh and jobs for both sons of the victim.

Meanwhile, the National Investigation Agency (NIA) said on Thursday that it was not just the arrested accused but "a group of people" who were behind the killing. "The preliminary inquiry suggests that there may or may not be any terrorist group involved in the murder but for now there is a group of people," said a senior IPS officer. A 10-member team under the supervision of an Inspector General and a Deputy Inspector General rank officer is probing the matter, and a series of raids will be conducted, said the officer.

Urging the NIA to punish the guilty within a month, Gehlot appealed for a trial in a fast-track court. "The NIA should probe the case in a time-bound manner. The trial should be conducted in a fast-track court," he said.

Group behind crime: NIA

The NIA said it was not just the two accused but "a group of people" who were behind the killing. "Initial inquiry suggests that there may or may not be any terrorist group involved, but for now there is a group of people," a police officer said.

Consoling the family members of Lal, the CM said the country was saddened by the incident. "The criminals should be punished within a month. The police arrested the accused immediately. Those who committed the murder had made their video viral."

When asked about the alleged police laxity that led to the crime, the CM remarked, "Everything will come out in the NIA probe. The investigation should be trusted; it will be fair."

After his post supporting Nupur Sharma, Lal was receiving threats and had complained to the police. The police, however, appear to have underestimated the gravity of the threat. The SHO and the constable involved in the case have been suspended. The BJP has alleged that Kanhaiya died due to the police lapse.

The NIA and SIT teams are investigating various facets related to Riyaz Jabbar and Mohammad Ghaus allegedly involved in Lal's murder. The security agencies reached the place where Riyaz lived with his wife and two children. The NIA team also questioned his landlord, Mohammad Umar.

Meanwhile, the outrage in Rajasthan is unabated. The Vishwa Hindu Parishad and All Rajasthan Shopkeepers Federation called for a Jaipur bandh on Thursday. Most shops remained closed in the Walled City areas. In Udaipur, thousands of people took to the streets on Thursday to protest against the murder.

Two 50-bed hospitals among health facilities set up for yatris

KAVITA BAJELI DATT @New Delhi

TWO fully-equipped 50-bed hospitals set up by the Defence Research and Development Organisation (DRDO), and a team of specialist doctors and paramedics drawn from across the country, are among the initiatives taken by the Union health ministry to provide healthcare facilities to the devotees taking the 43-day Amarnath Yatra.

According to the Union Health Ministry, the initiatives have been taken under the direction of Union Health Minister Dr Mansukh Mandaviya, as per the directives of the Supreme Court.

The hospitals set up with the help of DRDO will have X-ray and ultrasound facilities, general and oxygenated wards, OPD, ICU, pharmacy and a laboratory. The ministry has made arrangements for additional staff at these two hospitals. For attending medical emergencies, health professionals will be deployed in batches.

The medical professionals are being deployed from central government hospitals and Central Government Health Scheme.

"State governments have been informed about the required arrangements along with medical preparation, including services of specialist doctors, as well as General Duty Medical Officers (GDMOs) to supplement the efforts of the Jammu and Kashmir government, particularly by those states from where large number of pilgrims arrive," the ministry said.

Amarnath Yatra starts after 3 yrs, 3K pilgrims visit cave shrine on Day 1

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Srinagar

AFTER a gap of three years, the Amarnath Yatra in the Himalayas started amid tight security measures in Jammu and Kashmir on Thursday. Over 3,000 pilgrims had darshan of the ice lingum at the cave shrine on the first day.

Chanting religious and Vedic mantras, hundreds of pilgrims started the pilgrimage from both the routes – the 48 km traditional Pahalgam route and the 14 km Baltal route.

A group of 4,890 pilgrims had arrived in the Valley on Wednesday from Jammu after being flagged off by Lt Governor Manoj Sinha from Bhagwati Nagar base camp.

Rahul, a pilgrim from Indore, Madhya Pradesh, said he is happy about taking the pilgrimage. "People are cooperative and the weather is very pleasant," he said.

A woman pilgrim, Vaishali, from Maharashtra, who took the Pahalgam route to pay obeisance at the cave shrine, also expressed her excitement. "I am undertaking the pilgrimage for the first time. It is a great feeling," she said.

The authorities have made strong security measures on both routes to ensure safe and smooth conduct of the pilgrimage. Thousands of security men armed with automatic weapons are keeping a watch on the movement of pilgrims. The security personnel have been deployed atop peaks and along the routes. Drones, RFIDs and CCTVs are being used to monitor and track the movement of vehicles. The pilgrims have been advised to travel only in the yatra convoys.

In the morning, Lt Governor Manoj Sinha performed a puja and prayed for peace, happiness and prosperity of all. "I have full faith that the devotees travelling from all over the country will have a safe and memorable pilgrimage to Amarnath," he said.

MP minister calls for public hanging of Udaipur killers to serve as deterrent

ANURAAG SINGH @ Bhopal

TERMING the killing of tailor Kanhaiya Lal in Rajasthan's Udaipur an "intolerable national crime", Madhya Pradesh's culture and tourism minister Usha Thakur said the two accused should be publicly hanged and their bodies fed to eagles and crows. "Only then can such horrific hate crimes possibly be controlled," Thakur said in Khandwa district on Thursday.

"Such disgusting and heinous crime cannot be tolerated in independent India. The perpetrators should be hanged for the horror they've committed. How can ideological differences lead to such inhuman act?" she questioned.

Thakur, who is also the minister in-charge for the communally sensitive Khandwa district, made the remarks while campaigning for BJP candidates in the local body polls.

She has often been in news for her controversial remarks. Just a few weeks back, she had asked Hindus to learn from Muslims when it comes to inculcating religious sanskar in children.

"Ingraining dharmik sanskar (religious sacrament) with tenacity and staunchly among Hindu children is the responsibility of all family members, including mothers and sisters. If you want to learn staunch religious culture and practices, then idealise Muslims. One and all among them, from small kids to officials and traders, leave all their work and wear skull caps to offer namaz at the stipulated time. But what do we (Hindus) do? We are fond of building temples in villages, but don't love participating in aarti there," she had said at a Gau Pujan event in Khandwa.

Thakur, who is the MLAs from Mhow, had in 2014, as the Indore-III legislator, demanded ban on entry of non-Hindus at garba venues. In 2020, she had demanded ending government support to madrsas, accusing them of breeding terrorism.

Belur Math slams remark calling Didi an incarnation

PRANAB MONDAL @Kolkata

BELUR Math, the international headquarter of Ramakrishna Mission and Ramakrishna Math, on Thursday condemned Trinamool Congress MLA Nirmal Maji's comment hailing Mamata Banerjee as an incarnation of Maa Sarada, the wife of Ramakrishna Paramahamsa. Calling Maji's comment "unfortunate", organisation secretary general Swami Suvirananda said the Maa Sarada 's disciples are hurt.

"We have received a number of phone calls and emails from disciples regarding Maji's comment. The remark has hurt the sentiment of countless disciples. It is unfortunate," Suvirananda said.

Maji's comment had come at an event two days ago, when he also described the Bengal CM as Florence Nightingale, Mother Teresa and Sister Nivedita.

He said, "A few days before Swami Vivekananda's death, Maa Sarada had told Swamiji's teammates that when she will be reborn, she will cross the canal, reach Kalighat via Harish Chatterjee Road — right now where didi (Mamata) lives. Didi is mother Sarada."

Suvirananda refuted the statement, saying that none of the books published from Ramakrishna Math, Ramakrishna Mission or other publishers carries such information. "I came in contact with many monks and household devotees and disciples who came in contact with Maa Sarada at some point. No such words could be heard from them. I have no idea from where the leader got such strange information," he said.

Maji's statement also drew criticism from various segments of the society. TMC secretary general Partha Chatterjee said the party doesn't approve of his comment. "We will look into why he said this," he said.

GUJ AAP APPOINTS 6K LEADERS AS NEW OFFICE BEARERS

DILIP SINGH KSHATRIYA @ Ahmedabad

THE Aam Aadmi Party (AAP) in Gujarat on Thursday released a mammoth list of 6,098 new office bearers. The list comes days after the party announced the appointment of about 1,000 office bearers into the organisation.

The second list, announced by AAP state general secretary Manoj Sorathia, comprises 148 workers at the state level, 53 at the Lok Sabha level, 1,509 at the district committee and 4,488 at the Assembly level. Bhemabhai Chaudhary will take charge as the Gujarat vice president of the party, while Rameshbhai Nabhani has been appointed as AAP Gujarat state secretary.

"The Assembly elections are round the corner in the state and the Aam Aadmi Party has been strengthening its organisation in Gujarat over the last few years," Sorathia said. "We will soon release the third list in the ongoing work of organization building," he added.

When the AAP had announced the first list of the organisation on June 12, there was widespread resentment among the cadre, with some leaders resigning from their posts in the party, while several others threatened to quit in protest over the new organization. Several leaders point out that workers from North Gujarat have not been given a good place in the party and were, in fact, side-lined. Most representatives are from South Gujarat in the new organisation list, they say.

BJP seeks to breach Rae Bareli, Mainpuri in 2024

NAMITA BAJPAI @ Lucknow

UPBEAT after the twin bypoll victories in Rampur and Azamgarh, the BJP has set its eyes on the Congress bastion of Rae Bareli and SP patriarch Mulayam Singh Yadav's fortress, Mainpuri.

While Rae Bareli, represented in Lok Sabha by Congress chief Sonia Gandhi, is the only seat occupied by the party in UP, Mainpuri is represented by Mulayam.

In a meeting here on Wednesday, BJP leaders from UP and Delhi got together with district incharges, district coordinators and Assembly segment coordinators to devise a strategy to win the 14 LS seats currently held by the Opposition.

Of the 14, BSP has 10, SP has three, and Congress has one .

According to sources, BJP has decided to hand over the command of the 14 'precious' seats to four Union ministers —Railway Minister Ashwini Vaishnav, Union Agriculture Minister Narendra Singh Tomar, Union Minister for Science and Technology (independent charge) Dr Jitendra Singh, and Union Minister of State for Education Annapurna Devi.

As per sources, BJP has decided to hand over the command of the 14 seats to four Union ministers — Ashwini Vaishnav, Narendra Singh Tomar, Dr Jitendra Singh and Annapurna Devi

Sources said party's Rajya Sabha member Naresh Bansal, who arrived from Delhi for the meeting, urged the cadre to keep focus on those 12 seats.

State organisational secretary Sunil Bansal is believed to have told the party leaders that coordinators to the Assembly segments falling under the Opposition-held Lok Sabha seats have been appointed.

"The party is also chalking out other steps to ensure victory on those seats in 2024," said a senior BJP leader.

Towns, cities to be named after CM, PM

BJP Miniter Ram Surat Kumar announced in Bihar assembly that some towns and cities will be named after PM Narendra Modi and Bihar CM Nitish Kumar. The minister's remarks came in reference to government's scheme to provide benefits of PM Awas Yojna and Mukhya Mantri Awas Yojna even to those who were landless. Under the scheme, government will provide land to beneficiaries for construction of houses. Such cities and towns will be set up in all 38 districts of the state. Taking a swipe at the government's announcement, former chief minister and RJD leader Rabri Devi quipped, "What happened to 'adharsh gaon' (model villages) adopted by MPs.

CM inaugurates Ganga Path in Patna

Chief Minister Nitish Kumar inaugurated first phase of Ganga Path in Patna, giving the state capital its first 'marine drive'. The corridor, which connects Digha to Patna Medical College and Hospital, has been compared to Mumbai's Marine Drive and London's Thames Path. The road has come up along the Ganga River on a 13m high dam. The stretch is a part of Ganga Path Development project, which includes a 20.5 km long four-lane expressway between Digha and Deedarganj in Patna. Motorists were seen checking out the new corridor. In the second phase, the road will be extended by around 18 km upto Fatuha, an important industrial centre, some 24-km from the state capital.

Called CM's 'Hanuman', RCP loses cool

The internal conflict between Bihar Chief Minister Nitish Kumar and Union Minister Ram Chandra Prasad Singh aka RCP Singh is no more a secret. Singh, who is not on good terms with Nitish Kumar ever since he was denied renomination to Rajya Sabha for the third consecutive term, virtually lost his cool when reminded of him being described as 'Hanuman' of CM Nitish Kumar). Singh retorted, "I am RCP. How can I become Hanuman? I am Ram and always remain the same person." Singh, whose term in Rajya Sabha is likely to come to an end on July 7, is currently visiting ashrams of vedic gurus, meeting saints and mahanths of various mutts across the country to seek divine blessings.

China opposes India's plans to hold G20

BEIJING

CHINA on Thursday voiced its opposition to India's reported plans to hold the next year's meeting of G-20 leaders in Jammu and Kashmir, echoing close ally Pakistan's objection, and underlined that relevant sides should avoid "politicising" the issue.

"China's position on Kashmir is consistent and clear cut. It is a legacy issue between India and Pakistan. It should be properly resolved in accordance with the relevant UN resolutions and bilateral agreements," Chinese Foreign Ministry spokesperson Zhao Lijian said. He said the "relevant parties should avoid complicating the situation with the unilateral move. We need to address the disputes through dialogue and consultation and jointly uphold peace and stability."

This will be the first major international summit expected to be held in J&K after its special status guaranteed under Article 370 of the Constitution was withdrawn and was divided into two union territories in 2019. PTI

Russian forces leave Snake Island, Ukraine army hails the liberation

Moscow terms pullout a 'goodwill gesture'; Kyiv claims they escaped in speedboats

SLOVIANSK

RUSSIA forces withdrew from a strategic Black Sea island Thursday after relentless Ukrainian attacks but kept up their push to encircle the last stronghold of Ukrainian resistance in the eastern province of Luhansk.

Russia portrayed the pullout from Snake Island off the port city of Odesa as a "goodwill gesture." Ukraine's military said the Russians fled the island in two speedboats following a barrage of Ukrainian artillery and missile strikes.

Russian Defense Ministry spokesman Lt. Gen. Igor Konashenkov said the withdrawal was intended to demonstrate that Russia isn't hampering UN efforts to establish a humanitarian corridor for exporting agricultural products from Ukraine. Ukraine and the West have accused Russia of blockading Ukrainian ports to prevent exports of grain, contributing to the global food crisis. Russia has denied the accusations and said that Ukraine needs to remove mines from the Black Sea to allow safe navigation. Turkey has sought to broker a deal on unblocking grain exports. But the talks have dragged on, with Kyiv expressing fear that Russia will exploit the removal of the mines to attack Odesa.

Snake Island sits along a busy shipping lane. Russia took control of it in the opening days of the war in the apparent hope of using it as a staging ground for an assault on Odesa.

The island early on took on legendary significance for Ukraine's resistance to the Russian invasion, when Ukrainian troops there reportedly received a demand from a Russian warship to surrender or be bombed. The answer supposedly came back, "Go (expletive) yourself."

The island's Ukrainian defenders were captured by the Russians but later freed as part of a prisoner exchange. After the island was taken, the Ukrainian military heavily bombarded the small Russian garrison there and its air defenses. Ukraine has celebrated the story with patriotic fervor, issuing a postage stamp in commemoration. Ukraine's army on Thursday hailed the withdrawal of Russian forces from the Black Sea's Snake Island, which was captured in the first days of Russia's invasion. Agencies

An overview of Snake Island, Ukraine. Russian troops have abandoned their positions on the island

WHY THE ISLAND IS IMPORTANT?

Sloviansk: The island is situated at around 35 km off the Ukraine's coast. If Russia continued to capture Snake Island, it would have affected the exports of Ukrainian grain. Also, the Black Sea coast would also be affected and would be vulnerable to attacks. The military in Kyiv feared that Russia could also install long-range air defences like S-400 air missile system. If Russia continued to take control of the island, Romania, a member of NATO would have faced threats. The area is also important as it contains petroleum and gas

Sajid Mir to be probed for role in Mumbai attacks

LAHORE

SAJID Majeed Mir, one of the most wanted terrorists and the main handler of the 2008 Mumbai attacks who was once declared dead by Pakistan, will be interrogated by authorities here for his role in the deadly carnage, an official said.

Mir, 43, a member of the banned Lashkar-e-Taiba terrorist group, was jailed for over 15 years in a terror-financing case by an Anti-Terrorism Court in Lahore earlier this month as part of Pakistan's bid to exit from the grey list of the FATF. "A Federal Investigation Agency (FIA) team will interrogate Mir in Gujranwala jail for his alleged role in the Mumbai Attack case," a senior FIA officer associated with the probe of the 26/11 case, told PTI.

He is imprisoned in the Central Jail Gujranwala. Mir has been convicted in a separate terror financing case that has nothing to do with the Mumbai attack case. "Mir, who allegedly had directed the attackers from Lahore during the siege in Mumbai, will also be quizzed for his links with Jamaat-ud-Dawa (JuD) chief Hafiz Saeed and LeT operation commander Zakiur Rehman Lakhvi and financing the attack," the official said. The 26/11 case has been pending in the anti-terrorism courts in Rawalpindi/Islamabad since 2009. PTI

RBI examined vulnerabilities associated with crypto assets - bitcoin, stable coins, others

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ Bengaluru

AT a time when the virtual currency industry is struggling with crypto winter, 30% tax and 1% TDS, which will be implemented from July 1, Reserve Bank of India Governor Shaktikanta Das on Thursday called cryptocurrency as a "clear danger."

"Anything that derives value based on make believe, without any underlying, is just speculation under a sophisticated name," he said in the foreword to the 25th issue of the Financial Stability Report (FSR) that was released on Thursday.

Recent regulatory measures have focussed on curtailing solvency risk of financial entities, promoting market-based financing and reducing moral hazard of unduly prolonged policy support.

Risk associated with crypto ecosystem

Report says high levels of global debt, monetary policy tightening, risks associated with the crypto ecosystem and climate related risks and more recently, geopolitical conflict posed threats to global financial stability

The report says high levels of global debt, monetary policy tightening, risks associated with the crypto ecosystem and climate related risks and more recently, geopolitical conflict posed threats to global financial stability. Stressing on financial stability and consumer and investor protection, the report pointed out the Financial Stability Board (FSB) that laid out four key areas to promote global financial resilience including underscoring the need for regulatory guardrails to ensure investor protection.

Several vulnerabilities associated with crypto asset markets have been highlighted in FSB. It examined vulnerabilities associated with unbacked crypto assets such as bitcoin, stable coins and decentralised finance (DeFi) and crypto asset trading platforms. The report says the growing threat of crypto assets ecosystem warrants drastic approaches by the authorities. Ongoing challenges relating to cyber risk and climate related financial risks are the two other major focus areas for policy makers.

Das also mentioned cyber risks in the foreword. "While technology has supported the reach of the financial sector and its benefits must be fully harnessed, its potential to disrupt financial stability has to be guarded against."

Balancing fintech's risk-reward tough act for regulators: RBI report

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ Mumbai

NOTING the rapid growth of India's financial technology (FinTech) industry, the RBI underscored how its advent has exposed the banking system to new risks that extend beyond prudential issues in its Financial Stability Report (FSR) released on Thursday.

"The advent of FinTech has exposed the banking system to new risks, which extend beyond prudential issues and often intersect with other public policy objectives relating to safeguarding of data privacy, cyber security, consumer protection, competition and compliance with AML (anti money laundering) policies," it highlights.

BigTechs can scale up rapidly and pose risk to financial stability, which can arise from increased disintermediation of incumbent institutions. Moreover, complex intertwined operational linkages between BigTech firms and financial institutions could lead to concentration and contagion risks and issues relating to potential anti-competitive behaviour, the FSR notes.

Regulators and supervisors face a challenging balancing act between "innovation-friendliness" and "managing risks" to financial stability, which requires more engagement of stakeholders such as regulators, the FinTech industry, and the academia to work towards common principles for management of FinTech activities, including business and revenue models, governance, conduct, risk management, regulation aspects for promoting a sustainable ecosystem.

BigTechs like Apple, Google and Facebook offer payment services facilities to users across the globe, while the likes of Amazon , Ant Group, Tencent and Baidu, etc, offer a host of other services such as banking, asset management, crowd funding and insurance apart from payments, noted the FSR, citing a survey of international regulatory and supervisory practices related to BigTech.

BigTechs' entry, the survey points out, has altered the financial landscape.

GST collection likely to exceed ₹1.4 lakh cr in June

MONIKA YADAV @ New Delhi

THE GST collection in June is likely to cross ₹1.4 lakh crore on the back of corrective measures taken by the government to check tax evasion, a finance ministry official told TNIE.

Overall the tax revenue in the remaining quarters of the current fiscal will also improve as GST rates were increased on several products and the earlier exemptions under the new indirect tax were removed, the source said.

"In June, the GST collection is likely to cross ₹1.4 lakh crore. Similarly, in the month of July too, the revenue collection is expected to exceed ₹1.45 lakh crore. Overall , the remaining quarters will see significant improvement in the revenue collection," the official said.

The revenue collection for the past three months has also been more than ₹1.4 lakh crore. Some experts question the increase in GST revenue at a time when inflation has crossed central bank's comfort level. The consumer price index-based inflation remained above the Reserve Bank of India's (RBI) upper band of 6% for the straight fifth months in a row. It stood at 7.04% in May, while hitting an eight-year high of 7.79% in April post monetary policy committee (MPC) raised the repo rate and the government took fiscal measures to address supply issues.

Rise in GST revenue collection

Revenue collection for past 3 months has been over ₹1.4 lakh cr. Some experts question the GST revenue rise when inflation has soared

In addition, the wholesale price index-based inflation rate, touched a fresh peak of 15.88% in May. It has been in double digits for the past 14 months.

The goods and services Tax (GST) regime will complete five years on July 1, since it was first implemented in 2016. The new indirect tax system was brought in to simplify the erstwhile mechanism of levying multiple central, state and local duties. Though it was introduced in a hurried way with many flaws, it has come a long way with loads of improvement.

"The Centre has been consistently making improvements in the GST mechanism. Significant reforms have been brought in audits and analytics to plug the loopholes in the existing system of indirect taxation," the official added.

HOUSING SALES DIP 15% IN Q2 AS LENDING RATES, PRICES GO UP

ARSHAD KHAN @ New Delhi

HOUSING sales fell 15% sequentially in Q2CY2022 (April-June 2022) in the top 7 cities as a rise in property prices and interest rates weighed on buyers' sentiments.

According to data issued by real estate consultant Anarock, sales declined from nearly 99,550 units in Q1,2022 to nearly 84,930 units in Q2, 2022.

Owning to slowdown in sales, developers also restricted new supply to nearly 82,150 units in Q2, 2022, as against 89,150 units in Q1 2022 - an 8% fall in the period.

Anuj Puri, Chairman - ANAROCK Group, said, "Inflationary pressures on input costs compelled developers to rise property prices in the past few months, and RBI unleashed two rate hikes that swelled up home loan interest rates. These two factors combined to hike the overall property acquisition cost for homebuyers, leading to a dip in housing sales."

Following two repo rate hikes by the RBI, commercial banks wasted no time in passing this to end consumers by increasing interest in housing loans. Residential property prices across the top 7 cities saw a quarterly increase of 2-3% in Q2, 2022. Annually, prices have risen by between 4 and 7%.

City-wise, Mumbai Metropolitan Region (MMR) recorded the highest sales of approx. 25,785 units, lower 11% sequentially, in Q2 2022, followed by NCR with approx. 15,340 units, lower 19% sequentially. At 3,810 units, down 24%, Chennai witnessed the sharpest fall in sales.

Launch-wise, MMR (29,730 units) and Pune (16,560 units) were the only markets to see new launches increase by 26% and 14% q-o-q, respectively. The remaining top 5 cities saw reduced new launches. NCR, at 4,070 units, witnessed a big 56% decline in new launches in Q2CY2022. Dhaval Ajmera, director of Ajmera Realty and Infra India, told TNIE going forward the rising interest rate may pose a challenge, but that is likely to be offset by the festive season demand and overall positive sentiments.

Bosch opens smart campus in Bengaluru, can house 10K staff

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

PRIME Minister Narendra Modi virtually inaugurated Bosch's new smart campus 'Spark.NXT' in Bengaluru on Thursday.

At the virtual event, the Prime Minister said India's start-up ecosystem is among the biggest in the world, and in the tech world itself there are so many opportunities.

Bosch has invested ₹800 crore over the last five years in developing the 76-acre campus that features multiple smart solutions based on security, sustainability and user experience. It can house 10,000 employees.

Congratulating Bosch India on completing 100 years, Modi said it is important to invest even further in tech and innovation. "Bosch came to India as a German company. But today, it is as much Indian as it is German," he said.

Speaking about the new campus, Filiz Albrecht, member of the board of management and director of Industrial Relations at Robert Bosch GmbH, said 8% of net sales are invested in R&D, and this new campus provides associates to focus on the development of user-centric innovations.

Bosch India leveraged its AI, IoT, automation and digitalisation capabilities to develop its smart campus that will also enhance its R&D capabilities. It has also trained over 10,000 employees through a reskilling initiative over the past two years. Soumitra Bhattacharya, managing director of Bosch Limited and president of the Bosch Group, India, said, "Bosch has been part of the transformation in India for the last 100 years, and during this era we have revolutionised the mobility and the 'beyond mobility' ecosystem."

He added that with our new Spark.NXT campus, the company continues to invest in smart and sustainable solutions. The Bosch Group employs about 402,600 across the world, and in India, there are over 30,000 employees.

It has generated consolidated sales of about ₹11,781 crore in fiscal year 2021-22 in India.

Maruti launches new Brezza, ups its SUV game

ARSHAD KHAN @ New Delhi

MARUTI Suzuki on Thursday launched its new version of compact SUV - Brezza - at a starting price of ₹7.99 lakh.

The top variant of the SUV will cost ₹13.96 lakh. The launch comes as the country's largest carmaker is aiming to increase its market share in the sports utility vehicle (SUV) segment, which now dominates India's four-wheeler market.

Currently, Maruti has only two SUVs in its long line-up and despite controlling over 43% of the domestic passenger vehicle market; its share in this segment is only 20%. In the passenger car and sedan segment combined, it has a market share of 67%. Beside Brezza, MSIL also has plans to launch a fresh product in the mid-size SUV segment to rival Hyundai Creta and Kia Seltos. The carmaker is also expected to launch Suzuki's popular Jimny SUV to the local market by next year.

New Brezza receives good response

Launched during 2016 auto expo, Brezza has been a hit and led the C-segment. Before official launch of new Brezza, it had already received 45,000 plus bookings, indicating a long waiting period

"The all-new Brezza is an important step in this direction. This model is the first offering in our upcoming vibrant SUV portfolio," said Hisashi Takeuchi, managing director and CEO of MSIL.

Launched during the 2016 auto expo, Brezza has been a hit and led the C-segment despite aggressive foray of Hyundai Venue, Tata Nexon, Mahindra XUV300 and Kia Sonet. However, MSIL's absence in other SUV segments where rival carmakers have taken an edge, could not compliment Brezza's solo run to increase its market share. "The most loved compact SUV, Brezza with over 7,50,000 delighted customers, has ruled the sales charts by consistently being among the top 10 best-selling passenger vehicles...We are confident that customers will appreciate the all-new Brezza and it will be a blockbuster once again," said Takeuchi. The SUV is powered by next-gen K-series 1.5L dual jet, dual VVT engine with progressive smart hybrid system. It promises a fuel efficiency of up to 20.15 km/l and comes. Even before the official launch of the SUV, it had already received 45,000 plus bookings, indicating a long waiting period.

Buttler is England's white-ball captain

Jos Buttler has been appointed as the new captain of England's limited-overs teams, the England and Wales Cricket Board (ECB) said on Thursday. The dynamic wicketkeeper-batsman succeeds Eoin Morgan after England's 2019 50-over World Cup-winning captain announced his retirement from international cricket on Tuesday.

Schopman's India ready for World Cup challenge

SWAROOP SWAMINATHAN
@Chennai

JANNEKE Schopman is explaining the selection process she will use to pick the squad for the women's World Cup. She illustrates it by citing the skill-sets of two of the four defenders that were ultimately picked in the 18-women squad, Nikki Pradhan and Deep Grace Ekka. "We need to have a team that complements each other," she says. "But not have too many players (doing the same thing). If that's the case, we become easy to defend. We need to have different strikers, midfielders and defenders. Grace is a very good defender but she also has a high ball and has a good hit on her (dragflick exponent). I also think Nikki is an excellent defender but she doesn't have a high ball. That doesn't make her a lesser player than Grace, she just has to play a little bit different. She has ability to dribble past defenders and join the attack. That's what I'm looking for."

This conversation, which took place a week or so before she finalised the squad for the World Cup beginning in the Netherlands and Spain on Friday, gave an insight into how she has modelled the team in her own image after Sjoerd Marijne's tenure ended post the Olympics. In Tokyo, the women's team was a sleeper hit and could have walked away with bronze if they had finished on the right side of a seven-goal thriller against Great Britain.

If they repeat that performance over the next two weeks, India will equal their best ever World Cup showing (fourth in 1974). Coincidentally, they begin their campaign against England. Twelve of 18 from Great Britain will play for England and a good start against them could put them in contention for qualifying directly to the quarterfinals.

What Schopman's charges have done in the Pro League over the last few months suggests they do have the ability to spring a surprise. Why? The work the team has put in in training sessions has helped them evolve. Schopman keeps using the word 'ownership' as well as 'pace' multiple times during the interaction and it's a fair idea of how they play. "Looking hard at how we can create more attacking opportunities," she says when asked about what they have been working on over the last 2-3 months. "Really focusing on using our speed... we are moving nicely during our training. The challenge is can we do that when the match happens."

To help the team in that aspect, she has drilled it into the players' minds about the importance of awareness, looking over their shoulders and having a lot of the ball. "Really busy with awareness and decision-making on the field," the Dutchwoman says. "For me, good players are able to make those decisions in a split second by themselves. What I have tried to do is give them ownership but also training specifically... looking at each other, establishing eye-contact, checking your shoulders, playing fewer touches and so on."

Schopman also installed four sets of cones with LED lights — a training tool known as SMART goal — to develop the players. She explains what it does. "You connect these cones and form a goal. If it's lit up in blue, you can score a goal, if it's red, you cannot score. So they have to constantly keep moving, seeing what goal is open and what is not."

SERIES 2021: TIME FOR FINAL EPISODE

Leading 2-1 in Pataudi Trophy, India take on England at Edgbaston today, Bumrah to lead

VENKATA KRISHNA B @Chennai

BEFORE we begin, let's rewind a bit. Almost a year ago, England and India were in the middle of a gripping series. Even though the scoreline in 2018 will never do justice to how close these teams fought, 2021 was different in every sense, it was a cliffhanger. There was something magical at Lord's on the final day, it was felt even by people sitting 4000 miles away. At The Oval, the euphoria hit a crescendo. A Covid outbreak in the Indian team meant the climax at Manchester never arrived. In short, the power was abruptly cut-off in the middle of a thriller.

Ten months later, the moment is here. Edgbaston — England's own Gabbatoir — is the venue and the two teams, having undergone plenty of changes in their leadership set-up, will square-off in what looks to be a brown pitch with bit of grass cover. It is hard to second guess how the pitch will behave, but if one goes by the indications from the Indian camp, it is going to be batting friendly than the surfaces they encountered last year. In that sense, it is totally different to what unfolded in the earlier part of the series, where the surfaces had juice and bowlers had the upper hand so it invariably came down to which batting unit put up a brave show.

For a team that looked every bit heading towards a series defeat at home, a lot has changed for England. Between the two teams, it is the hosts who come into the match fully prepared thanks to their recent series win over New Zealand. India, on the other hand, are slightly under-cooked, and are playing their first Test in more than three months under a new captain. With Rohit Sharma, yet to recover from Covid, out, Jasprit Bumrah will become the 36th captain to lead India in Tests. He will also be the first Indian fast bowler to do since Kapil Dev. In a season where all the focus has been on their white-ball cricket, this Test comes as a one-off. Yet, it is one where they will be looking to finish the job they left mid-way. Having embraced an aggressive brand of cricket under the leadership of Ben Stokes and Brendon McCullum, it would be interesting to see how India respond to it. They are without KL Rahul and Rohit Sharma, the two openers who played a big role in helping them take 2-1 lead. In their absence, Shubman Gill remains a sure starter, and one among Cheteshwar Pujara and Mayank Agarwal is expected to partner him at the top. It is understood that the team management is not keen on tinkering with Hanuma Vihari and Shreyas Iyer, who were picked to bat at No 3 and 5.

India could play two spinners

While the changes in the batting is more of a forced one, it is in the bowling unit where there is likely to be a surprise. Right through those four Tests, India were bold enough to play four pacers in place of Ashwin. However, England's aggressive approach and the pitch on offer means India are open to play two spinners with Ashwin set to partner Ravindra Jadeja.

Kyrgios sets up Tsitsipas clash

AFP @London

NICK Kyrgios buried the rage he showed in his Wimbledon opener to ease into the third round on Thursday and warned: "I just wanted to remind everyone that I'm pretty good." The volatile Australian pulled off an impressive 6-2, 6-3, 6-1 win over Serbian 26th seed Filip Krajinovic to make the last 32 for the sixth time. "If I can just continue to play like that, I'm very dangerous," said Kyrgios, who will face World No 5 Stefanos Tsitsipas for a place in the fourth round.

Kyrgios fired 24 aces past Krajinovic, who made the final on grass at Queen's in the run-up to Wimbledon.

SELECT RESULTS Men: Stefanos Tsitsipas bt Jordan Thompson 6-2, 6-3, 7-5, Lorenzo Sonego bt Hugo Gaston 7-6 (4), 6-4, 6-4, Liam Broady bt Diego Schwartzman 6-2, 4-6, 0-6, 7-6 (6), 6-1. Women: Iga Swiatek bt Lesley Kerkhove 6-4, 4-6, 6-3, Elena Rybakina bt Bianca Andreescu 6-4, 7-5 (5), Paula badosa bt Irina Bara 6-3, 6-2.

Neeraj to lead India at Worlds

INDRANEEL DAS @Chennai

A DAY after the qualification cycle ended, Athletics Federation of India announced a 22-member team for the World Championships in Oregon, USA. Tokyo 2020 champion Neeraj Chopra will spearhead India's team and the best bet to win a medal at the Worlds, though other throwers will pose a stiff challenge.

There are 17 men, including a six-member 4x400m team and five women.

In current form, long jumper M Sreeshankar harbours a chance along too. In fact, Sreeshankar has the second best long jump record in the world this season at 8.36m along with Olympic champion Miltiadis Tentoglou of Greece. The world leader is Simon Ehammer of Switzerland, who has a personal best of 8.45m. There are two wildcard entries. Defending world champion Tajay Gayle who has a jump of 7.69m in June and a best of 8.69m in Doha worlds, while the other is Thobias Montler, the Diamond League winner, who has a personal best jump of 8.27m.

Interestingly, though Muhammed Anees Yahiya found a place in the team, the AFI has dropped long jumper Jeswin Aldrin from the squad based on his performance at the Interstate athletics championships. According to AFI president Adille Sumariwalla, his performance has been going down and they suspect there could be an injury concern too. Though steeple chase athlete Avinash Sable is improving every day winning a medal will be difficult.

Due to the US visa delay and different slots for interviews, the team will be travelling in batches to Chula Vista in the US where they will have a short training to acclimatise before the Worlds. According to chief coach Radhakrishnan Nair, the first batch of athletes who have got their visa, will leave on Saturday, while another batch will leave on Monday. The last batch will leave around July 5.

There was concern about UK visa for the Commonwealth Games in Birmingham for those travelling to the US for worlds. Nair said that too has been sorted. "The athletes will get their UK visa formalities, including biometrics, done in Chula Vista itself on July 7/8 before proceeding to Oregon," he said. "Neeraj and his physio will complete their formalities in Europe." Another surprise inclusion was quarter-miler Aishwarya Mishra, who for some reason went apparently missing for a while.

Team: Men: Avinash Sable (3000m Steeplechase), MP Jabir (400m Hurdles), M Sreeshankar and Muhammed Anees Yahiya (Long Jump), Abdulla Aboobacker, Praveen Chithravel and Eldhose Paul (Triple Jump), Tajinderpal Singh Toor (Shot Put), Neeraj Chopra and Rohit Yadav (Javelin Throw), Sandeep Kumar (20km Race Walking), Amoj Jacob*, Noah Nirmal Tom, Muhammed Ajmal, Naganathan Pandi, Rajesh Ramesh and Muhammed Anas Yahiya (4x400m).
Women: S Dhanalakhsmi (200m), Aishwarya Kailash Mishra (400m), Parul Chaudhary (3000m Steeplechase), Annu Rani (Javelin Throw) and Priyanka Goswami (20km Walk).

OPEC+ boost unlikely to ease oil price stress

Petroleum cartel has been adding about 432,000 barrels a day monthly after cutting production during pandemic

ENERGY

NEW YORK : The OPEC oil cartel and allied producing nations decided on Thursday to boost production of crude by an amount that will likely do little to relieve high gasoline prices at the pump and energy-fueled inflation plaguing the global economy. The increase of 648,000 barrels per day in August still leaves the world thirsty for oil as it rebounds from the Covid-19 pandemic and runs up against the inability of the 23-member OPEC+ alliance to meet its production quotas.

OPEC+, which includes Russia, confirmed the decision from its last meeting. Before that, it had been adding about 432,000 barrels per day monthly to put oil back on the market after cutting production dramatically during the height of the pandemic.

The increase was seen as a gesture largely by OPEC leader Saudi Araba to US President Joe Biden, who soon afterward planned his first trip to the kingdom as president where oil production is likely to be a topic next month. Biden, facing political pressure at home, has been urging oil-producing countries to open the taps and help bring down gasoline prices for American drivers.

Gasoline prices worldwide have reached painful highs. In the US, they surpassed $5 a gallon for the first time this month before dipping in recent days as global oil prices fell on fears of a recession.

Biden has been under pressure to do whatever he can to reduce prices, including urging Congress to suspend gas and diesel taxes and releasing oil from strategic reserves, although many experts say there's little he can do. OPEC, on the other hand, could help lower prices by increasing production —in theory. But many oil-producing countries are struggling to produce as much as the group's decisions set out.

Nigeria and Angola have longstanding shortfalls, while Russia has been losing some of its production because Western customers are shunning its oil, either from fear of sanctions or because they don't want to be associated with the war in Ukraine.

According to data collected by the International Energy Agency, OPEC+ production fell 2.8 million barrels per day below the agreed level in May. The production agreement gives laggards until the end of the year to make up their quotas.

Yet doubts have spread in the market about how much spare capacity even the Saudis or the UAE have. And for them to increase their market share at the expense of other cartel members might be a tough sell.

Newspapers in America are continuing to die at the rate of two each week

PRINT

NEW YORK: Despite a growing recognition of the problem, the United States continues to see newspapers die at the rate of two per week, according to a report issued on Wednesday on the state of local news. Areas of the country that find themselves without a reliable source of local news tend to be poorer, older and less educated than those covered well, Northwestern University's Medill School of Journalism, Media and Integrated Marketing Communications said. The country had 6,377 newspapers at the end of May, down from 8,891 in 2005, the report said. While the pandemic didn't quite cause the reckoning that some in the industry feared, 360 newspapers have shut down since the end of 2019, all but 24 of them weeklies serving small communities. An estimated 75,000 journalists worked in newspapers in 2006, and now that's down to 31,000, Northwestern said. Annual newspaper revenue slipped from $50 billion to $21 billion in the same period. Even though philanthropists and politicians have been paying more attention to the issue, the factors that drove the collapse of the industry's advertising model haven't changed.

SC blow to Biden's environment goals

ENVIRONMENT

WASHINGTON: The US Supreme Court ruled Thursday that the government's key environmental agency cannot issue broad limits on greenhouse gases, sharply curtailing the power of President Joe Biden's administration to battle climate change.

By a majority of 6-3, the high court found that the Environmental Protection Agency did not have the power to set sweeping caps on emissions from coal-fired power plants, which produce nearly 20 percent of the electricity consumed in the United States.

The decision sets back Biden's hopes of using the EPA to bring down emissions to meet global climate goals, set in 2015 under the Paris Agreement on climate change. It was a significant victory for the coal mining and coal power industry, which was targeted that same year for tough limits by the administration of then-president Barack Obama in an effort to slash carbon pollution.

It also marked a victory for conservatives fighting government regulation of industry, with the court's majority including three right-wing justices named by former president Donald Trump, who had sought to weaken the EPA. Conservatives cheered the decision, while the Biden administration blasted it for undermining the fight against global warming."This is another devastating decision from the Court that aims to take our country backwards," the White House said in a statement. In the case pitting West Virginia and other coal-mining states against the government, the court said that while EPA had the power to regulate individual plants, Congress had not given it such expansive powers to set limits for all electricity generating units.
